"When I stopped tithing, I seemed to have more financial difficulties. Somehow when I just don't have enough to make the tithe, something comes up to take that extra bit I held back from the Church. When I do make it, I seem to make it through the month, either due to reduced expenses or extra cash comes in. Funny how that works."

Today's Gospel

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 22, 2018

Theme: Sometimes we need to pause for rest with Jesus.

Step One - Listen to the Word
When you hear the words of today's Gospel proclaimed, what clings to your memory? What word or phrase strikes you?

Question for Children: How do you keep Sunday as a day of rest?

Question for Youth: Jesus was moved with pity for the people who were gathered. Who are the people you are moved with pity for? What can you do to help them?

Question for Adults: Why is rest important, and how do you make sure you get enough of it in your own life?

Baptism

We Welcome our Recently Baptized to our Parish Community:

Liam Decker Bachmann son of Colleen & Michael

Abigail Louise Kennybrook and Alexander Charles Kennybrook daughter and son of Jennifer & Charles

On Receiving Communion

• We are asked to observe a one-hour Eucharistic fast. This means not eating or drinking anything except water or medicine for one hour before receiving Holy Communion.

• We should observe proper reverence during the Communion procession; coming forward in a prayerful way, joining in the singing as we process forward. Remember, receiving Holy Communion as an action within the liturgy, is a communal action—something we do as one Body of Christ—and not an individual action.

• The proper sign of reverence before receiving Holy Communion is a bow of the head, not a full waist bow, and not a genuflection. The bow of the head is made before receiving both the Host and the Precious Blood.

• If you are receiving the Body of Christ in the hand, one hand is to be underneath the other, with both hands flat, not curled up. St. Cyril of Jerusalem would instruct catechumens to "make a throne" for the King they are about to receive. We receive the Body of Christ; we do not take or grab the Host. Consume the Host immediately. In addition, if you see someone walking around with a Host, say something!

• If you are receiving the Body of Christ on the tongue, open your mouth and stick out your tongue. Do not expect the minister to have to maneuver to place the Host in your mouth — stick out your tongue! Also, let the minister place the Host on your tongue; do not bite it or grab it with your lips. Do not move your head—do not be a moving target!

• Communicants respond "Amen" after the minister says, "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ." That moment is an important moment to express faith, and the Church asks that the ritual reception of Communion take place as a dialogue. Your response of "Amen" expresses both your belief in what you are receiving — the actual Real Presence, the Body and Blood, of Christ — and your understanding of the consequences of being in Communion with the Lord, namely, that you are called to be transformed to live the life of Christ. Don't say "thank you" or anything else, and don't be silent.

• When returning to one's seat after receiving Holy Communion, we are to pray by joining in the singing and making a prayer of Thanksgiving.
