Weekly Offering

November 1 Collection
CHURCH $4,353
ONLINE $4,574
TOTAL $8,927

Diocesan Assessment: $675

Nov. 8 second collection: Parish Maintenance.

Our parish needs $8,000 each week to cover essential operating expenses, including utilities, insurance, and staff salaries. This does not cover unexpected repairs or emergencies. The November 1 collection totaled $8,927, exceeding our weekly need by $927.

Consistent weekly support is necessary to keep our parish open and functioning. If you cannot attend Mass, please continue your offertory through Parish Giving online or by mailing your contribution to the parish office.

Every week matters. Your timely and faithful support sustains the life and mission of IHM. Thank you for making your parish a priority.

MASS INTENTION OPTIONS

SINGLE MASS: $20
One Mass offered for a deceased person, a special need or occasion, or in thanksgiving. We are honored to unite your intention with the Church's prayer.

NOVENA MASS SERIES - $130
Nine Masses celebrated on consecutive days. The novena is one of the Church's most beloved devotional forms, rooted in the nine days the Apostles spent in prayer between the Ascension and Pentecost. This series is a beautiful way to sustain a particular intention over time.

GREGORIAN MASS SERIES - $450
Thirty Masses celebrated on consecutive days, offered exclusively for one deceased person. Because of the care required to arrange this series, we ask for your patience as we confirm available dates. Please contact the parish office to discuss scheduling.

Keep the Light Burning

Living in Readiness and Hope

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 8, 2026

Most of us know what it means to prepare for something important. Before a journey, we check our tickets and pack our bags. When something matters, we make time for it. We do not want to discover at the last moment that we have forgotten something essential.

This Sunday, Jesus tells a parable about ten young women waiting for a bridegroom. All ten are invited, all ten have lamps, and all ten expect his arrival. Yet only five bring enough oil to keep their lamps burning when his arrival is delayed. The difference is not that some were invited and others were not, but that some were prepared for the waiting, while others were not.

Jesus concludes with a simple warning: "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Being ready for Christ is not only about the end of life. It is about cultivating our relationship with Him throughout our lives.

The oil in the parable is a helpful image of that relationship. Our spiritual lives cannot survive on occasional enthusiasm alone. Prayer, the Eucharist, reconciliation, Scripture, acts of charity, and daily choices to follow Christ help keep the flame burning. We cannot simply borrow someone else's faith. Each of us must make our own decision to follow the Lord.

The first reading from the Book of Wisdom reminds us that wisdom is found by those who seek it and make room to recognize God's presence. In a world filled with noise and distractions, that can be difficult. We often find time for many things, but prayer becomes something we hope to fit in when everything else is finished. Then, when difficulties come, we wonder why our spiritual strength feels so limited.

St. Paul adds an important dimension to this Sunday's message. He reminds us that Christians grieve with hope. Our belief in the resurrection does not take away the pain of losing someone we love, but it gives that pain a different horizon. Because Christ has risen, death is not the end of our relationship with God.

This message is especially meaningful in November, when we remember the faithful departed. Just last week, we celebrated All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day. Our prayers for our loved ones express more than nostalgia. They express our confidence in God's mercy and in the promise of eternal life.

This Sunday also falls just before Veterans Day, observed on November 11. As we prepare to honor those who have served our country, we can remember that faithfulness is often revealed through commitment, perseverance, and sacrifice. These qualities also belong to the Christian life. Being prepared does not mean living in fear, but remaining faithful to what has been entrusted to us today.

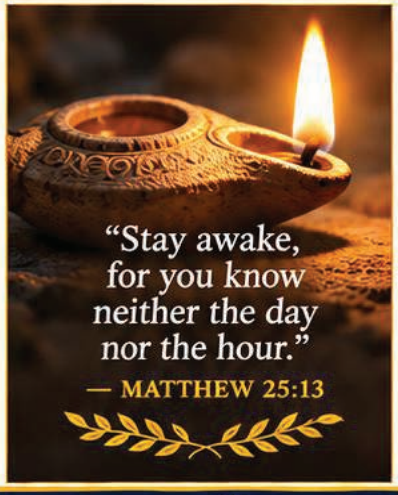
As we move through November and approach the final weeks of the liturgical year, the Church invites us to examine our spiritual priorities. What is keeping the flame of faith alive within us? What has caused it to grow weak? Where have we become careless or distracted?

Jesus does not tell this parable to make us anxious about the future. He tells it because our relationship with Him is too important to neglect.

The best way to be ready to meet Christ tomorrow is to live faithfully with Him today.

Reflection Questions

1. What helps keep the flame of faith burning in my daily life?
2. Have I allowed busyness or distractions to weaken my relationship with God?
3. How does my belief in eternal life influence the way I face loss, uncertainty, and suffering?
4. What practical step can I take this week to become more spiritually prepared?



Prayer

Lord Jesus,
teach me to keep the light of faith burning in my heart. When I become distracted, draw me closer to You. Give me the wisdom to seek You each day and the patience to remain faithful in times of waiting. Comfort those who grieve the loss of loved ones, and strengthen our hope in the promise of eternal life. May I always be ready to welcome You, not with fear, but with a heart filled with faith and love.
Amen.

"Be always ready, with your lamp burning."

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Written by
THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

Wis 6:12-16 | 1 Thes 4:13-18 | Mt 25: 1-13

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Have you ever gotten up early to watch the sunrise? It certainly takes commitment! One has to go to bed early and set an alarm, then get up in the stillness of the early hours before stepping outside. Although catching a glimpse of the sun peeking over the horizon can be a magical moment, our first reading tells us that finding wisdom is far better. It says wisdom is "readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her." In other words, it takes commitment. Persistence. Active involvement. Just like getting up before the break of dawn to catch the sunrise. If we want our lives to be shaped by wisdom, we must actively seek her. And Scripture promises that "whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our Gospel today offers a parable of individuals (wise virgins) who are ready to wake up at midnight to meet the Lord when he comes. But not everyone in the parable is so prepared. Upon discovering they would not have enough oil, the foolish virgins ask the wise ones to share theirs. The wise virgins say no, telling them to go and buy some for themselves. At first glance, one may wonder why the wise virgins wouldn't share theirs. Are they being selfish? But another important detail in the text gives us further perspective: we read that the bridegroom was "long delayed" in his return. What this suggests is that the foolish virgins had all the time in the world to go and buy the oil they needed. And yet they procrastinated doing the one thing necessary to be ready when the bridegroom arrived. Through the years, the Church has read this text as a reminder that we can't put off conversion, deluding ourselves into thinking that we still have time to get right with God. In reality, the time for repentance is now.

INVITATION

This week, consider making a commitment to fast from hitting the snooze button. Offer up this sacrifice for someone whose conversion to the Lord you are earnestly praying for. And may this simple act also help you to overcome, with the assistance of God's grace, any procrastination that may be subtly taking root in your heart so you will be ready to meet the Lord when he comes again.

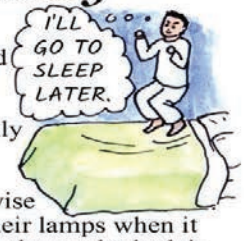
Always be Ready



Have you ever thought to yourself that it would be better to have fun and be bad now, and then be good later? That's what some of the bridesmaids in today's parable were like. They only brought enough oil for their lamps, and didn't bother to bring any extra. But the other bridesmaids had been wise and took along extra flasks to refill their lamps when it got late. When the bridegroom came, those who hadn't brought extra oil were gone, getting more oil, and missed the feast!

Sometimes people say that they have lots of time to change from their evil ways, so they don't repent right away. This parable shows us that it is very foolish to leave important things until later. Nobody knows when they will die, so we should always be ready.

The oil of the bridesmaids is like the grace in our souls. We need to make sure that our soul always has sanctifying grace, which we need to get into Heaven. We lose that grace when we do a serious sin. That is why if we ever commit a serious sin, we should go to confession as soon as we can so that we will always have grace and be ready for when we die.

Answer to front puzzle: 5 had extra oil. Answer to Word-find: My soul thirsts for Thee.

Of the 10 bridesmaids in the parable, 5 brought enough oil for their lamps for a long wait. The other 5 were not prepared and when their oil ran out, they missed the bridegroom when they went back for more oil. Always be prepared, like the 5 sensible bridesmaids. We never know the day or hour when Christ will return.
