Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 12, 2023

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20
This passage from Sirach gives strong, unequivocal emphasis to free will in every person. Before each of us is set, sin or virtue, life or death, and each of us are free to choose the one or the other.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10
Paul explains to the Corinthians that there are two different kinds of wisdom — the wisdom of God and the wisdom of the world. The wisdom of God is mysterious, but this wisdom has been revealed "to those who love him" through the Spirit.

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37
In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells the people he has come to fulfill the law. He speaks strongly against murder and anger, against adultery and lust, and against false oaths and lies. He warns the people that unless their virtue exceeds that of the Pharisees, they "will not enter the kingdom of God."

St. Patrick Pastoral Council

On January 25, 1959, Pope John XXIII announced the beginning of the Second Vatican Council. The initial session was held four years later on October 11, 1962. To reflect the exciting, ongoing movement of the Church, the Pope called for a revision of the 1917 Code of Canon Law, which was promulgated in 1983 by Pope John Paul II. Echoing the spirit of Vatican II, the new code emphasized the collegial nature of the Church, which is evident in the code's definition of a parish: "A parish is a definite community of the Christian faithful established on a stable basis within a particular church (diocese); the pastoral care of a parish is entrusted to a pastor as its own shepherd under the authority of a bishop." (Canon 515)

In response to that definition of "parish," the Council called for the establishment of parish pastoral councils and the role of laity in the local church. "The Christian faithful are those who, inasmuch as they have incorporated into Christ through baptism, have been constituted as the People of God; for this reason, since they have become sharers in Christ's priestly, prophetic, and royal office in their own manner, they are called to exercise the mission which God has entrusted to the Church to fulfill in the world, in accord with the condition proper to each one." (Canon 204) "After the diocesan bishop has listened to the presbyterial council and if he judges it opportune, a Pastoral Council is to be established in each parish; the pastor presides over it and through it the Christian faithful along with those who share in the pastoral care of the parish in virtue of their office give their help in fostering pastoral activity." (Canon 536)

Vatican Council II encouraged and empowered lay people to participate in the mission of the Church and in the pastoral activity of a parish. One of the ways in which the laity exercise that call is through the ministry of the parish Pastoral Council. The Pastoral Council at St. Patrick Church is an important component of church life. It responds to priorities and concerns within a parish as it seeks to achieve goals that it sets each year. Throughout the past two years, the Council has been navigated by two people who bring shared leadership and agenda-setting responsibility which assist me to steer the parish and address particular concerns voiced by people in the community. In that leadership roles on the Council are for one, two-year term, on September 1, 2021, the present co-chairs Mr. Joe Finazzo and Mrs. Mary Voytus replaced Mr. Jeff Vohden and Mrs. Nancy Jagoe who led the council through the pandemic from 2019 – 2021.

The present Pastoral Council of St. Patrick Church is made up of six men and six women. In addition to the mentioned co-chairs, other members include Mr. Bryan Gilrane, Mr. John Martin, Mrs. Colleen Truppo, Mrs. Vonnie Gibbons, Mrs. Jill Daley, Mrs. Andrea Santoriello, Mr. Rich Peters, Mrs. Jennifer Brody, Fr. Artur, and myself. One goal of the Council is to make the parish a thriving community of faith that is welcoming, hospitable, and spiritually alive. The Council is called to be the right arm of the pastor as well as an advisory board to him. People who serve on the Council accept a 2-year term with an option to serve another two years. One necessity of the Council is good chemistry among its membership, which calls for respect toward difference of opinions, listening skills, prayer, and humor as well as acceptance of particular responsibilities that are followed to achieve objectives. My work will all members of the Council is a true delight as the Council meets monthly on Saturday mornings.

My thanks and appreciation to all who presently serve on the Council as well as others who have in past years. Their guidance enhanced creativity into the vision of the parish as our church seeks to be a welcoming place for all regardless of age, gender, economics, marital status, sexuality, and race to grow in Christ as the People of God.

In Christ's Love,
Fr. Bob

Father English Food Collection

THIS WEEKEND is our monthly food collection for the Father English Center in Paterson. Items such as cereal, coffee, tea, peanut butter, jelly, soups, tuna, canned vegetables, and paper products are appreciated. Donations can be left in the priests' garage after all masses on February 4 and 5. Thank you for your support.

Capital Campaign Update

Once again my thanks and appreciation to all who provided contributions and pledges to the Capital Campaign "Rebuild, Restore, Renew". This month new lighting will be installed to the outside of the entrance of the church off Chatham Street. Through the years many have brought to my attention the darkness outside the church upon leaving after an evening mass in that the lighting fixtures are old and outdated. The existing six lighting fixtures will be replaced, and an additional two fixtures will be added that lead from the church to the parking lot. The work is scheduled to begin in mid-February.

At present 48% of payments toward pledges have been made which is a healthy statistic. We continue to evaluate roof work that needs attention with hope that work on the roof begins this June.

The Tootsie Roll Drive

One of the Knights of Columbus programs that took a hiatus during Covid was our Intellectual Disabilities Drive. Many people remember it as the "Tootsie Roll Drive."

Knights across America are seen at train stations, in front of stores, and at intersections with their bright yellow bibs and buckets, collecting donations. The Knights thank the donors with small Tootsie Rolls.

Every cent of those donations is distributed to local organizations and schools that help children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Here in the Chathams, donations have helped ECLC in the Borough, Special Education for Persons with Learning Disabilities in the Township, and Employment Horizons, which provides job training and placement services to people with disabilities.

If you see us this year, please be generous! To learn more about the Knights in the Chathams, call John Kelly 201-213-6967. To become a Knight, visit www.kofc.com/joinus.
