RCIA
A journey in faith

Have you expressed interest in becoming Catholic? Were you baptized Catholic as a child but did not celebrate the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?
Or perhaps you know someone who fits this description. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and practices of the Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate with your questions, reflections and your own faith story in a warm, accepting setting. For information please contact our Director of Faith Formation, Amy Strickland, at Stannreled@gmail.com or by calling (703) 528-6199 or Deacon Bill Donovan at DeaconDonovan@stann.org or by calling (703) 254-6633 for more information.

President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Issues Statement on Course of Action Responding to Moral Failures of Judgement on the Part of Church Leaders

August 1, 2018
WASHINGTON—Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, has issued the following statement noting the steps the U.S. Bishops Conference will take in addressing the failures of the Church in protecting the people of God.

Cardinal DiNardo's full statement follows:

"The accusations against Archbishop Theodore McCarrick reveal a grievous moral failure within the Church. They cause bishops anger, sadness, and shame; I know they do in me. They compel bishops to ask, as I do, what more could have been done to protect the People of God. Both the abuses themselves, and the fact that they have remained undisclosed for decades, have caused great harm to people's lives and represent grave moral failures of judgement on the part of Church leaders.

These failures raise serious questions. Why weren't these allegations of sins against chastity and human dignity disclosed when they were first brought to Church officials? Why wasn't this egregious situation addressed decades sooner and with justice? What must our seminaries do to protect the freedom to discern a priestly vocation without being subject to misuse of power?

Archbishop McCarrick will rightly face the judgement of a canonical process at the Holy See regarding the allegations against him, but there are also steps we should be taking as the Church here in the United States. Having prayed about this, I have convened the USCCB Executive Committee. This meeting was the first of many among bishops that will extend into our Administrative Committee meeting in September and our General Assembly in November. All of these discussions will be oriented toward discerning the right course of action for the USCCB. This work will take some time but allow me to stress these four points immediately.

First, I encourage my brother bishops as they stand ready in our local dioceses to respond with compassion and justice to anyone who has been sexually abused or harassed by anyone in the Church. We should do whatever we can to accompany them.

Second, I would urge anyone who has experienced sexual assault or harassment by anyone in the Church to come forward. Where the incident may rise to the level of a crime, please also contact local law enforcement.
Third, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops will pursue the many questions surrounding Archbishop McCarrick's conduct to the full extent of its authority; and where that authority finds its limits, the Conference will advocate with those who do have the authority. One way or the other, we are determined to find the truth in this matter.

Finally, we bishops recognize that a spiritual conversion is needed as we seek to restore the right relationship among us and with the Lord. Our Church is suffering from a crisis of sexual morality. The way forward must involve learning from past sins.

Let us pray for God's wisdom and strength for renewal as we follow St. Paul's instruction: 'Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect' (Romans 12:2)."

FAITH FORMATION REGISTRATION FOR 2018-2019 CLASSES HAS CLOSED!

While we are no longer registering families, we still need volunteers! Both adults and teens are welcome. Please contact Amy at stannreled@gmail.com or 703-528-6276 if you are interested in serving. No experience is required, and all classroom responsibilities are shared with other adults.

We Need Pray-ers!

The Faith Formation office is happy to accept requests for prayer via e-mail at stannreled@gmail.com.In turn, we have a group of people in the parish who receive regular e-mails with these intentions. These people have made a commitment to pray for these intentions daily, individually or as a family. If you would like to join in this effort, please e-mail Amy at the address above.

Baptism 2018-2019

As a reminder, our monthly baptismal celebrations are for children under seven years of age. Adults and older children receive baptism at the Easter Vigil, which falls on Saturday, April 20th in 2019. If you wish to explore reception of baptism for you and or your older child, please contact Amy for more information.

First Communion 2018-2019

If your child has been baptized in the Catholic Church and is enrolled in second grade at either the parish school or in faith Formation classes, he/she will be prepared this year to receive First Communion in May 2019. There will be a parents' meeting in January to discuss the details of this celebration.

If your child is older than this and has not yet received First Communion, please contact Amy for more information.

Confirmation 2018-2019

We are still seeking chaperones for the retreat weekend for those children being confirmed in November 2018. If your child has already received First Communion and is in eighth grade in either the parish school or Faith Formation classes, he/she will be prepared this year to receive Confirmation in ninth grade. There will be a parents' meeting next January to discuss this process.

If you or child is older than eighth grade and has not yet received Confirmation, we can provide instruction for this to occur in 2019. Please contact Amy for details.

FAITH BOOK
20th SUNDAY (B) August 19, 2018
Proverbs 9: 1-6; Psalm 34; Ephesians 5: 15-20; John 6: 51-58

From today's Proverbs reading:
Wisdom... has spread her table... she calls from the heights out over the city.... "
Come, eat my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed!
Forsake the foolishness that you may live; advanced in the way of understanding."

Reflection:
Wisdom takes flesh in Jesus, who reveals God's love and concern that we take in the right kind of nourishment. God says to us, "I see your hungers that only I can fully satisfy. I send you my Son, Receive the food and drink he offers you – his very self." Like Wisdom in Proverbs, Jesus sets a table and invites us to be nourished on himself, "true food... true drink."

So, we ask ourselves:
How would you describe your spiritual life... Satisfying? Malnourished? Starving?
What do you do and where do you go to feed your spirit?

Stewardship Reflections:
20th Sunday in Ordinary Time
"Watch carefully then how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise…" (EPHESIANS 5:15)
A wise person recognizes that all we have and all we are comes from God. A wise person thanks God continually throughout the day for all His many blessings. A wise person realizes that God has blessed us for a reason and that He wants us to help Him build His kingdom of earth.

Joining Faith Direct
Thank you for being a part of our St. Ann Parish family. I appreciate all that you do for our parish and community by sharing your God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure. Your active participation in the life of our parish helps us to fulfill our vision and mission.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

Christian Stewardship
As Christians we are asked to view all of our gifts as blessings from God, nurturing them during our lifetime and returning them to our Heavenly Father with an increase. One way we can do that is to help our parish meet its future needs by including (insert parish name here) in your will.
