From the desk of Father Jim…

With the coming of the New Year, there is always the expectation of many blessings to our families and even our parish community. I would like to thank our parishioner, William Barrera, for securing and installing the new carpeting in the Holy Angels Church Gathering Space at NO COST to the parish. My thanks also to his coworkers who assisted him in the installation of the carpet. The carpet that was replaced was the original, installed at the opening of the church building 14 years ago and was in great need of replacement.

As you can see, the blessings for the New Year have already begun for our parish. God is good!

Father Jim

BODA DE CANÁ

Leer Juan 2,1-11.

En la boda de Caná María no hace una petición a Jesús; solo le dice: "No tienen vino" (Jn2, 3) ella le informa a Jesús y le deja decidir lo que conviene.

De María podemos sacar dos enseñanzas. Primero, aprendemos su afectuosa solicitud por los hombres, la atención maternal que le lleva a percibir los problemas de los demás. Vemos su bondad y disponibilidad para ayudar.

Segundo, María nos enseña a dejar todo al juicio de Dios. Así nos enseña a rezar: Dejar a que Dios haga su voluntad y no nuestros deseos, por importantes y razonables que sean. Aprendamos como María la bondad y disposición de ayudar, pero también la humildad y generosidad para aceptar la voluntad de Dios, convencidos de que su respuesta será lo mejor para nosotros.

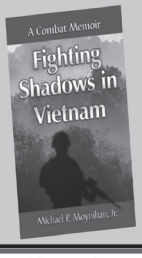
In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.



The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
