CUARESMA

La imposición de las cenizas. ¿De dónde surge esta práctica? Antes de Cristo, judíos y Ninibitas utilizaban la ceniza como un símbolo de penitencia. Años más tarde, los fieles católicos comenzaron esta práctica para prepararse para la celebración de la Semana Santa y, ya en el siglo XI, se agrega al misal el rito del Miércoles de Ceniza.

La celebración del Miércoles de Ceniza nos invita hoy a una profunda revisión de nuestra vida, de nuestras actitudes y criterios de comportamiento; a iniciar un serio proceso de conversión y de purificación. Cuaresma es un tiempo de gracia que Dios nos concede como un regalo.

Tiempo de conversión y penitencia

La Cuaresma romana, al insistir sobre el ayuno y sobre la penitencia, lo hace desde una perspectiva eminentemente austera y penitencial. Es una forma de expresar el permanente control que el cristiano debe ejercer sobre sí mismo y la lucha abierta contra las pasiones y las apetencias de la carne que se alza contra las exigencias del espíritu. Al mismo tiempo, las prácticas de penitencia durante la Cuaresma son asumidas como una forma de «satisfacción» o castigo para purgar los pecados propios y los ajenos. Hay, por otra parte, una permanente invitación al reconocimiento de los propios pecados y una llamada insistente a una conversión radical y absoluta.

"Arrepiéntete y Cree en el Evangelio"

Marcos 1, 15

No es tanto la penitencia corporal lo que interesa subrayar cuanto la conversión interior del corazón. Los textos bíblicos, ellos de la literatura orientan la actitud cuaresmal de cara a una profunda purificación del corazón y de la misma vida de la Iglesia. La verdadera conversión a Dios se manifiesta en una apertura generosa y desinteresada hacia las obras de misericordia: dar limosna a los pobres y comprometerse solidariamente con ellos, visitar a los enfermos, defender los intereses de los pequeños y marginados, atender con generosidad a las necesidades de los más menesterosos.

La Cuaresma se entiende como una lucha contra el propio egoísmo y como una apertura a la fraternidad. A partir de ahí es posible hablar de una verdadera conversión y de una ascesis auténtica. Sólo así puede iniciarse el camino que lleva a la Pascua.

En este sentido, Cuaresma viene a ser un tiempo que permite a la Iglesia —a toda la comunidad eclesial— tomar con-ciencia de su condición pecadora y someterse a un exigente proceso de conversión y de renovación. Sólo así la Cuaresma puede tener hoy un sentido. Los cristianos que realizan seriamente el ejercicio cuaresmal y recorren con asiduidad el camino que lleva a la Pascua, compartirán sin duda con Cristo la victoria sobre la muerte y sobre el pecado.
