and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

Lord Jesus, your cross and resurrection signaled a new beginning of peace and reconciliation:
Lord, have mercy.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Christ Jesus, you are comfort to those who seek forgiveness and healing:

Gloria

Mass of Renewal

Glo - ry to God in the high - est, and on earth peace to peo - ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Sirach 27: 30—28: 7

A Reading from the Book of Sirach Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight.
 The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance,
 for he remembers their sins in detail.
 Forgive your neighbor's injustice;
 then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.
 Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD?
 Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself,
 can he seek pardon for his own sins?
 If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath,
 who will forgive his sins?
 Remember your last days, set enmity aside;
 remember death and decay, and cease from sin!
 Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor;
 remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.
 The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Refrain

The Lord is kind and mer - ci-ful; the Lord is kind and mer - ci - ful. Slow to an - ger, rich in kind-ness, the Lord is kind and mer - ci - ful.

Second Reading

Romans 14: 7-9

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans
 Brothers and sisters:
 None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself.
 For if we live, we live for the Lord,
 and if we die, we die for the Lord;
 so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.
 For this is why Christ died and came to life,
 that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.
 Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Gospel

Matthew 18: 21-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Peter approached Jesus and asked him,
 "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?"
 Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.
 That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants.
 When he began the accounting,
 a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount.
 Since he had no way of paying it back,
 his master ordered him to be sold,
 along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt.
 At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said,
 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.'
 Moved with compassion the master of that servant
 let him go and forgave him the loan.
 When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount.
 He seized him and started to choke him, demanding,
 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him,
 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.'
 But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt.
 Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair.
 His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant!
 I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to.
 Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?'
 Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt.
 So will my heavenly Father do to you,
 unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."
 The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

HomilyProfession of Faith

*I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

General IntercessionsPrayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.
 Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.
 May our parish community support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen

LOOKING TO FORM A PARISH YOUTH GROUP:

We are first turning to any interested parents that would like to see a Parish Youth Group form here at Divine Mercy. We realize the necessity to first get the parents on board so that they can then involve their teenage children. The youth group would be any young adult that has already received their Confirmation. Multiple attempts have been made over the years to create a parish youth group, but the response was not favorable. There will be a brief informational meeting today (Sunday), at 5:00 PM following the Cornhole Tournament. The meeting will be no more than 30 minutes, but we want to see if there is an interest to create a youth group. If any parent is interested and cannot attend next Sunday's meeting, just simply call or text Fr. Paul (570) 498-0590.
