Alleluia, Alleluia. My Friends of St. Jude

For forty days, we celebrated the season of Lent when we were reflecting on the death of Jesus. Lent ended with Holy Week when we concentrated on the Passion of the Lord. Today we're celebrating the Resurrection of the Lord and began the Easter Octave followed by the six weeks of the Easter season. Lent and Easter. Death and Resurrection. Both Lent and Easter have distinctive purposes. Lent is a season of repentance. We turned away from sin. We reflected on the love of God to identify where we were falling short. During Easter, we focus on the resurrection of the Lord. It is a season of new life. The new life of Jesus. The new life of the resurrection. Jesus wishes to share His new life with us. He wants to help us to grow in His love. We remember the virtues of Jesus and try to establish them in our lives. We seek to pray more and to meet with Jesus more in the sacraments. We seek union with Jesus. We want Him to live in us. We aim to share in His resurrection life. Easter is a beautiful time of the year. It is the holy season of new life in Christ. May the Risen Lord be with us at St Jude and may He help us to build our Christian community based always on His love.

Happy Easter

Fr. Antonio

Trusting in the words of Our Risen Lord, we commend them to you and confidently ask you to bless them for all eternity with the joy of your presence in your heavenly kingdom. May the joy of Easter be with them and with us forever. Amen.*
