Mondays, 4:30-6PM – November 18 to December 16

Advent Service of Remembrance, Wednesday Dec.18, 6:30PM

Many of us feel the need for light in the darkness of grief as days shorten and daylight hours lessen. Loneliness can grow especially when facing the holiday season. We meet in the parish center for 5 Sessions which deal with navigating the physical, emotional and spiritual challenges many experience after a significant loss. Our focus will be "getting through the holidays". Think & pray about joining us if you feel you can use a little extra help this year. Registration flyers are available in the Narthex.

Wednesday, December 18 is open to all parishioners who wish to gather with us in prayer for St. Mary's Annual

Centering Prayer

If you are hungering for a deeper experience of God and a support system to sustain that journey, or that practice, then please try one of our Centering Prayer groups. There are two groups that meet on Thursdays downstairs in the Trustee Room. One is at 11am (then stay for the noonday mass) and the other is at 7pm. We also have a remote connection into the 7pm meeting if you would like to join interactively via Zoom. This prayer is a silent meditation where rather than speaking to God, we listen for God. Our meetings are 45 minutes long and include a check-in, some discussion and a reading about some aspect of contemplation, and then a 20-minute prayer practice. Newcomers and drop-ins are always welcome. For questions or to get the Zoom link, contact Pat McKenzie at 973-769-1461 or mckenziepat@gmail.com
