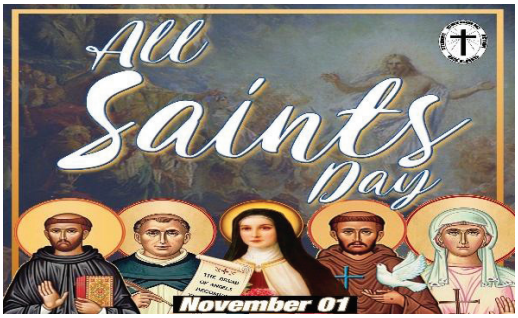
ALL SAINTS ✠ NOVEMBER 1, 2026

First Reading: Revelations 7:2-4, 9-14 ✠ Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a



We are told that there are over 10,000 men and women, young and old who have been declared saints in the Catholic Church. The word “saint” comes from the Latin word “sanctus” meaning (holy). This weekend we honor all these saints and holy individuals on the Feast of All Saints, recognized for their exceptional virtue and closeness to God who serve as intercessors for the world at large.

One may wonder how does someone become a saint in the Catholic Church? In the early Church, all the baptized were considered saints, but during the persecutions of the Church, martyrs, or those put to death because of their faith in the Lord were venerated for their courage in the midst of their suffering and death. During the Medieval Period, Christians began to acknowledge certain men and women as saints not because of a miracle that took place, but because of the affirmation that the person exhibited outstanding holiness in life. Eventually, the Church established a more formal process of the path to canonization. It became better understood as an act by the Pope after an investigation process to declare in a definitive way that a Catholic Christian was in the glory of heaven and interceding for the world before God.

In 1983 Pope St. John Paul II issued an apostolic constitution “Divinus Perfectionis Magister,” which made the canonization process simpler, faster, less expensive and more productive.

Today, the process of canonization involves three stages. The first involves a diocesan inquiry to begin a cause of canonization for someone. I understand that there is interest in beginning a diocesan inquiry about the baseball star and humanitarian Roberto Clemente, who died while bringing relief supplies to earthquake victims in Nicaragua in 1972. The second involves a thorough study of the person’s life through the Vatican Congregation for the Causes of Saints which prepares a detailed report about the person. Lastly, the Vatican Congregation passes judgement on the report and upon their approval sends it to the pope who upon his approval determines whether a miracle attributed through the intercession of the individual is valid enough to advance them to being beatified (declared blessed), or if already declared blessed, to being canonized a saint. The initial title given to an individual at the start of the process is “Servant of God.” The next is “Venerable” when the person is said to have had heroic virtue. The third title given is “Blessed’ upon beatification and the final title is “Saint” given upon their canonization by the pope at a Mass celebrated at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. On Monday, November 2nd we will pray for all souls (the faithfully departed) that they may join the saints in heaven one day soon.

With a friendly wink and a prayer or two for you and your families. Have a Blessed weekend and a terrific start to the work week, school week, retirement week, or whatever kind of week you wish to call it. Pray for all of us O Holy Saints of God!

Affectionately,

Fr. Sam

For the proper use of wealth
Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

REFLECTION

Listen to the Hummingbird
-Leonard Cohen

Listen to the hummingbird
Whose wings you cannot see
Listen to the hummingbird
Don't listen to me.

Listen to the butterfly
Whose days but number three
Listen to the butterfly
Don't listen to me.

Listen to the mind of God
Which doesn't need to be
Listen to the mind of God
Don't listen to me.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time (All Saints)
"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The stewardship lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

We Remember.
We believe.

Join us on the evening of All Souls Day, Monday, November 2, at 7:30 pm, for a special Mass of remembrance for all our loved ones who have died. In the sanctuary, at the altar of Saint Joseph, we will set aside a special place for you to bring photos of your deceased loved ones. Come pray with us, as we entrust our family and friends to the love and mercy of God.

FOOD PANTRY

A Season of Gratitude

As we prepare for the colder months and the upcoming holiday season, the need for food assistance is increasing. Every donation, every helping hand, and every act of generosity helps ensure that local families have access to nourishing food.

Our last food distribution assisted 160 families.

Thank you for being part of this important ministry. Together, we can continue to bring hope, dignity, and compassion to those in need.

Our Food Pantry needs essential items this month, especially canned vegetables (peas, carrots, corn, string beans) canned beans, mac & cheese, peanut butter, jelly, fruit, sauce, rice, spaghetti, cold cereal, tuna, snacks, pancake mix and syrup.

Let's fill those shelves together and make sure no one in our community goes without a hearty meal. Donations may be placed in the designated bins in the church vestibule, atrium and rectory vestibule.

If you would like to donate to the Food Pantry via the Amazon Wishlist, please scan the QR code below. You can choose to have the donations delivered directly to St. Anne's Food Pantry.

Heating & Air Conditioning ~

Everyone knows that there are some months in which our electricity bill or heating bill is higher than others. Well, it's the same with the Church. As you know, we use an additional way of paying for our extra energy months. In the back of the church each Sunday you will find separate ENERGY envelopes. If you should happen to hit the jackpot that week, and wish to throw a dollar or two in that envelope, we'd greatly appreciate it! You can throw these special envelopes right in the collection with your regular envelope. The energy envelopes will not be mailed to you. They will simply be in the back of the church, so if you don't spot them, be sure to ask the ushers at your Mass. Thanks so much. And special thanks to those who have already been doing it regularly. It makes a difference!!!

Online Giving…

You have the opportunity to make donations to our Sunday collection online!
To sign up, go to the St. Anne website – www.stannefairlawnnj.org
Go to the DONATE button in the top right hand corner of the homepage

Once you are taken to the new site, click on the section that says Create New Account. Next you will see New User Account Registration. Fill out the form and click "submit." When you are enrolled, you can go into Manage My Account, where you will see My Payment Methods. Here you can choose to have the funds deducted from your checking or bank account (you will need your routing and account numbers on hand). Under Manage My ccount, you will also see Give a New Gift. There you will decide when and how much to give. (In the list, Offertory Collection means the Sunday collection.) You can select recurring or one time gifts. You also have the option to access all the other special envelopes you would normally find in your envelope packet and which are generally one-time donations.
Each time you go to Mass, get a card that says "I have made my donation online" and put it in the collection when the usher comes around. Thanks so much for giving online!

You can reach Online Giving at 800-348-2886 with questions or for additional assistance.

St Anne Church is now accepting VENMO as a payment option.
