THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ✠ NOVEMBER 8, 2026

First Reading: Wisdom 6:12-16 ✠ Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

Dear Friends,

Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour. (Matt 25: 13)

Have the same attitude that is yours in Christ Jesus…he did not regard equality with God something to be held onto. Rather he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave…he humbled himself becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. (Philippians 2:6-8)

One of the common images that the Jewish people used to describe their relationship with God was that of a wedding. In both the prophets and the psalms, they referred to God as their spouse. His closeness to them was to be like the intimacy of a husband and wife.

It's a shocking image, especially when the Hebrew Scriptures quite honestly admitted that God's people were unfaithful to him. Nevertheless, God continued to want them to be that close. So, it wasn't all that surprising that Jesus of Nazareth used the same image when he spoke about his desire for his people – he too desired to be "there" for them, as a husband with his spouse.

Hence the passage in this Sunday's gospel…there, Jesus used a parable of a marriage celebration. He told of a groom about to greet his bride with her accompanying maids as escorts. In the story, the groom was delayed but when he did come, some of the maids were ready, some weren't and missed marriage. Hence the warning to "stay awake" because you can miss the opportunity to be a part of the celebration.

What does this have to do with us? We too are invited to be in communion with Christ. That's what we experience sacramentally in the Eucharist. Unfortunately, while Christ certainly is with us in the Mass, reaching out to us through his Word, through his presence with others, and through the Eucharist, we can absent mindedly go through the ritual of the celebration.

Here's one way to awaken our awareness: to realize that what takes place in the Eucharist also takes place whenever we encounter the poverty of human life, our own poverty or the poverty of anyone else. What do I mean by the "poverty of human life?" I mean our experience of our own or another's flaws, our own or another's sinfulness, or the diseases, the violence, the unforgiveness, the injustices from which we all suffer.

What is there about these dimensions that makes them opportunities for us to be more conscious of Christ? It's of what St. Paul reminded us in his hymn quoted above. "Christ emptied himself" to share in the most abject poverty of the human condition, the cross! Where we would least expect him to be, that's precisely where he was and always is.

That's why the Eucharist is such a powerful symbol of his ongoing presence. The simple bread and wine reveal the depth of his gift of himself. If we can practice seeing him in our poverty or the poverty of others, where we would least expect him, then we can become more conscious of Him in Holy Communion.

And, if we can become more conscious of Him in that simple Communion, we can then become more aware of Him in all those moments when we're in situations where we tend to overlook him. Then the world would begin to change for us because we've been changed by Christ's self-emptying love. Where we least expect Him to be, he is. So now, he urges us: stay awake!

Love,

Fr. Joe

Worship... Called and formed by the Word of God, we worship our Lord primarily in the Mass. The Eucharist is e center of our Christian life. It grounds everything else we do, from prayer to our daily tasks to our ministries. If you have any comments, please feel free to contact any of the following Pastoral Council Representatives:

REFLECTION

The Indwelling Presence

William Wordsworth

And I have felt
A presence that disturbs me with the joy
Of elevated thoughts; a sense sublime
Of something far more deeply interfused,
Whose dwelling is the light of setting suns,
And the round ocean and the living air,
And the blue sky, and in the mind of man;
A motion and a spirit, that impels
All thinking things, all objects of all thought,
And rolls through all things. Therefore am I still
A lover of the meadows and the woods,
And mountains; and of all that we behold
From this green earth; of all the mighty world.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call to stewardship is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Heating & Air Conditioning ~

Everyone knows that there are some months in which our electricity bill or heating bill is higher than others. Well, it's the same with the Church. As you know, we use an additional way of paying for our extra energy months. In the back of the church each Sunday you will find separate ENERGY envelopes. If you should happen to hit the jackpot that week, and wish to throw a dollar or two in that envelope, we'd greatly appreciate it! You can throw these special envelopes right in the collection with your regular envelope. The energy envelopes will not be mailed to you. They will simply be in the back of the church, so if you don't spot them, be sure to ask the ushers at your Mass. Thanks so much. And special thanks to those who have already been doing it regularly. It makes a difference!!!

Online Giving…

You have the opportunity to make donations to our Sunday collection online!
To sign up, go to the St. Anne website – www.stannefairlawnnj.org
Go to the DONATE button in the top right hand corner of the homepage

Once you are taken to the new site, click on the section that says Create New Account. Next you will see New User Account Registration. Fill out the form and click "submit." When you are enrolled, you can go into Manage My Account, where you will see My Payment Methods. Here you can choose to have the funds deducted from your checking or bank account (you will need your routing and account numbers on hand). Under Manage My ccount, you will also see Give a New Gift. There you will decide when and how much to give. (In the list, Offertory Collection means the Sunday collection.) You can select recurring or one time gifts. You also have the option to access all the other special envelopes you would normally find in your envelope packet and which are generally one-time donations.
Each time you go to Mass, get a card that says "I have made my donation online" and put it in the collection when the usher comes around. Thanks so much for giving online!

You can reach Online Giving at 800-348-2886 with questions or for additional assistance.

St Anne Church is now accepting VENMO as a payment option.
