TODAY'S GOSPEL

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Mark 6:7-13

EL EVANGELIO DE HOY

Entonces llamó a los Doce y los envió de dos en dos, dándoles poder sobre los espíritus impuros. Y les ordenó que no llevaran para el camino más que un bastón; ni pan, ni alforja, ni dinero; que fueran calzados con sandalias, y que no tuvieran dos túnicas. Les dijo: "Permanezcan en la casa donde les den alojamiento hasta el momento de partir. Si no los reciben en un lugar y la gente no los escucha, al salir de allí, sacudan hasta el polvo de sus pies, en testimonio contra ellos". Entonces fueron a predicar, exhortando a la conversión; expulsaron a muchos demonios y curaron a numerosos enfermos, ungiéndolos con óleo.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

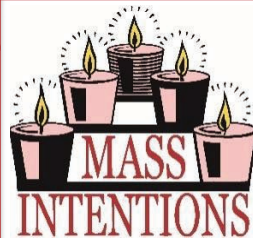

What kind of authority and power does the Lord want us to exercise on his behalf? Jesus gave his apostles both the power and the authority to speak and to act in his name. He commanded them to do the works which he did -- to cast out evil spirits, to heal, and to speak the word of God -- the good news of the gospel which they received from Jesus. When Jesus spoke of power and authority he did something unheard of. He wedded power and authority with love and humility. The "world" and the "flesh" seek power for selfish gain. Jesus teaches us to use it for the good of our neighbor. Why does Jesus tell the apostles to "travel light" with little or no provision? "Poverty of spirit" frees us from greed and preoccupation with possessions and makes ample room for God's provision. The Lord wants his disciples to be dependent on him and not on themselves. He wills to work through and in each of us for his glory. The Lord entrusts us with his gifts and talents.

For Reflection:

Are you ready to handle the power and authority which God wishes you to exercise on his behalf? Are you eager to place yourself at his service, to do whatever he bids you, and to witness his truth and saving power to whomever he sends you?

Prayer:

"Lord, make me a channel of your grace and healing love that others may find life and freedom in you. Free me from all other attachments that I may joyfully pursue the things of heaven. May I witness the joy of the gospel both in word and deed."

PREPARING FOR JUBILEE 2025

The Vatican has unveiled its Jubilee 2025 website – iubilaeum2025.va. There is also an app available for pilgrims. The website offers information about Jubilee 2025: the bull of announcement, the jubilee prayer, the hymn, a letter from Pope Francis, an explanation of what a jubilee is, the historical background of jubilees, and is available in nine languages.

For those wishing to participate in the jubilee, the site contains a calendar of events and provides pilgrimage options, including one within Rome. Pilgrims can also sign up for a participation card and for lodging. Events are already posted on the calendar. Pope Francis will open the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica on Dec. 24, 2024. Jan. 24 marks the Jubilee of the World of Communication, and Feb. 8 is the Jubilee of the Armed Forces, Police and Security. The Website also highlights preparations across the globe for Jubilee 2025.

On Jan. 21 of this year, Pope Francis launched the Year of Prayer in preparation for the jubilee and called on Catholics "to pray more fervently to prepare ourselves to live properly this grace-filled event and to experience the power of hope in God." The Year of Prayer, the pope said, is dedicated "to rediscovering the great value and absolute need for prayer in personal life, in the life of the Church, prayer in the world."

Archbishop Rino Fisichella, pro-prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization, and who is in charge of coordinating the Year of Prayer, said "It's a privileged time in which to rediscover the value of prayer and the need for daily prayer in our Christian life." He added that the Year of Prayer offers "a time to discover how to pray and, above all, how to educate the people of today in prayer, in this age of digital culture, so that prayer can be effective and fruitful."
