

MARY'S MAGNIFICAT

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.

“TRUTH”

In the movie, “A Few Good Men,” an investigating officer asks for the “truth” concerning a difficult situation and the Commanding Officer answers him with; “Truth? You can’t handle the Truth.” Can YOU handle the truth? Today’s 2nd reading tells you that the Lord knows all the inner workings of your heart, so discern in truth, all your thoughts, words, deeds and actions. Are you faithful to God’s Commandments in order to “remain” in Christ? The Gospel speaks of Christ as the True Vine and YOU as the branch. When the branch becomes detached from the Vine it withers and dies. It is Christ, the True Vine, who feeds and strengthens every individual branch so that they can bear much fruit. How much fruit do you bear? Do you know you are responsible for revealing Christ to your children, grandchildren, family and friends, by word, deed and action? If you don’t, who will? Are you hoping they will get it through osmosis? Not in today’s culture. Today, Jesus calls you to either be cut off as dead, dry wood or to burst forth with great faith in Christ, so as to bear much fruit. The choice is yours. Through prayer, attending Mass, reading Scriptures and receiving the Sacraments, you remain in Him, for “cut off from Him you can do nothing.” It is the very life of Christ that flows out from you to others. Remain in Him and your life becomes an arena of Faith, Hope, Charity and Love. You belong to Christ, who is TRUTH itself. THIS IS YOUR PROFOUND MISSION. THIS IS THE PURPOSE OF THE INCARNATION AND RESURRECTION. CHRIST DID IT ALL FOR YOU!!! WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR HIM? THIS IS THE “TRUTH.” CAN YOU HANDLE THE “TRUTH”?

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Please call Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218, for more information.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 9:26-31

Paul the Apostle came to Jerusalem, where the other disciples were afraid of him. Then they learned that the Lord had spoken to Paul and he had preached openly in Damascus. When they learned that someone wanted to kill him, they protected him because they fully believed he had converted.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:18-24

John clearly states that we must love one another. All people who believe in Jesus Christ can show their faith only through their actions. If people believe in Jesus and love one another as he commanded us, they prove that they are true believers in Christ.

Gospel: John 15:1-8

Jesus compares himself to a vine, and compares his father to the vine-grower. He explains how God prunes the barren branches so that the rest might yield more fruit. He reminds them that apart from himself, his followers could not bear fruit.
