First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

The Lord comforted his people, who were exiled to Babylon, by telling them of the new covenant he planned to make with them. The Lord declared he would write his law upon their hearts, and that he would forgive their evil and forget the sins they had committed in the past.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9

Though God could have heeded his Son's prayers and spared him suffering, Jesus accepted his Fathers will. Through his suffering, he learned obedience and became the source of eternal salvation for all people.

Gospel: John 12:20-23

Jesus was afraid of the suffering he knew he must face. Yet he explained just as a grain of wheat must die to be harvested, he had to face his hour of suffering to glorify his Father's name. Jesus explained that once he was lifted from earth, he could draw all people to himself, lifting them to eternal life.

How does the Eucharist unite us with our sisters and brothers around the world? Consider how Christ is present in Adolf and Florence, Sandra and Santos, and Evita. ## FEAST OF THE WEEK

St. Patrick (415?-493?) March 17th

Legends about Patrick abound; but truth is best served by our seeing two solid qualities in him: He was humble and he was courageous. The determination to accept suffering and success with equal indifference guided the life of God's instrument for winning most of Ireland for Christ.

Details of his life are uncertain. Current research places his dates of birth and death a little later than earlier accounts. Patrick may have been born in Dunbarton, Scotland, Cumberland, England, or in northern Wales. He called himself both a Roman and a Briton. At 16, he and a large number of his father's slaves and vassals were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold.

After six years, Patrick escaped, probably to France, and later returned to Britain at the age of 22. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion. He may have studied at Lerins, off the French coast; he spent years at Auxerre, France, and was consecrated bishop at the age of 43. His great desire was to proclaim the Good News to the Irish.

In a dream vision it seemed "all the children of Ireland from their mothers' wombs were stretching out their hands" to him. He understood the vision to be a call to do mission work in pagan Ireland. Despite opposition from those who felt his education had been defective, he was sent to carry out the task. He went to the west and north, where the faith had never been preached, obtained the protection of local kings and made numerous converts.

Because of the island's pagan background, Patrick was emphatic in encouraging widows to remain chaste and young women to consecrate their virginity to Christ. He ordained many priests, divided the country into dioceses, held Church councils, founded several monasteries and continually urged his people to greater holiness in Christ. He suffered much opposition from pagan druids, and was criticized in both England and Ireland for the way he conducted his mission.

In a relatively short time the island had experienced deeply the Christian spirit, and was prepared to send out missionaries whose efforts were greatly responsible for Christianizing Europe.

Patrick was a man of action, with little inclination toward learning. He had a rocklike belief in his vocation, in the cause he had espoused.

One of the few certainly authentic writings is his Confessio, above all an act of homage to God for having called Patrick, unworthy sinner, to the apostolate.

There is hope rather than irony in the fact that his burial place is said to be in strife-torn Ulster, in County Down.

Quote: "Christ shield me this day: Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I arise, Christ in the heart of every person who thinks of me, Christ in the eye that sees me, Christ in the ear that hears me" (from "The Breastplate of St. Patrick").

FOOD DONATIONS: YEAR ROUND

Each week, for many years, our very generous parishioners donate food to supplement the food pantry at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. In these hard economic times, they are in need of staples like pasta, rice, crackers, peanut butter and canned goods .... and even more so during the Christmas Season! Please leave in vestibule of church OR school lobby near the gymnasium.

EASTER FLOWER OFFERING

During the Easter Season, our church is adorned with lovely Easter flowers. If you would like to contribute to our Easter Flower fund, please use the envelope found in your packet of Sunday envelopes and in the back of the Church and School Lobby noting the loved one you would like remembered on the line provided or on the blank part of the envelope.

Help for Moms and their Babies Help is available for pregnant women in our community who desperately want to give birth but are beset by significant obstacles to doing so. Some worry too about their ability to care for their babies after they're born. Fortunately, two excellent, local resources are anxious to assist such mothers in need. Cross Roads Foundation (482 Manor Road; 718-556-3474) offers pregnancy testing, prenatal and parenting classes, relationship counseling, and material assistance such as baby clothing, layettes, diapers, formulas and other necessities. It also provides referrals for medical care, social services, legal assistance, foster care and adoptions. Good Counsel Homes, a nationally recognized creator of community-based services for needy mothers, maintains a home at 38 Wiman Place. It's not just a shelter for pregnant women, but a loving home offering care and compassion for any pregnant woman in need. It may be reached at 718-650-6994. Both organizations are in dire need of volunteers, baby supplies, and monetary donations.

ST. PATRICK'S LECTIO DIVINA, PRAYING WITH SCRIPTURE, GROUP

Growing in our relationship with God is a process like any other. It thrives when we take time to speak, listen, and be. Lectio Divina, divine reading, allows God to speak to our heart through Scripture and can help quiet our mind by inspiring deeper trust in God. If you want to pray more or differently or want to experience Scripture but don't know where to start, Lectio may be perfect for you. The next gathering is Thursday, March 21st at 7pm in the Church. No experience necessary; you'll be led. RSVP appreciated but not required; see <https://stpatrickssi.org/lectio-divina-group>. All welcome.
