A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 28, 2018

"Bartimaeus, a blind man, son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me.'…Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him.'…He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man replied to him 'Master, I want to see.' Jesus told him, 'Go your way, your faith has saved you.' Immediately he received his sight and followed Him on the way."

The parable of the Good Samaritan told on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. It was a story of compassion. Today we have the meeting of Bartimaeus, the blind beggar, that took place on that road. He heard it was Jesus, and called out to Him in his need. The dialogue was simple and clear. What he needed and Jesus' response.

How many other Bartimaeus' are there in our own time? People, described by Pope Francis as marginalized sitting on the side. They too want to hear of Jesus, cry out to Him in their pain, and seek the compassion, help and mercy of Jesus. It might seem easy, to cross to the other side of the street, to speed up, or ignore the cry. Is that the Christian response?

In the mail each day, on the television, there are continued requests for the kindness and mercy of Jesus. The requests for donations grow and the hurts of others tug at our hearts and purse strings. We cannot respond to all requests, but we can as Jesus did. The faith of Bartimaeus restored his sight and he followed Jesus on the way. The hand of Jesus reaching out and responding to one more request can make a big change in the life of someone else.

Family Support
Our pro-life ideology teaches us to care for the dignity of the human person, as well as each person's call to family and community participation. Thus, today we celebrate the human family in all its beauty and complexity. We pray for the unity of families, as well as the reunification of families across the nation. In particular, we remember immigrant and refugee families who have been forced by war or other circumstances to leave their homeland and to start over in a new place. We pray for these families, especially those who are members of our community here in Pennsylvania.

KIDS SAY THE FUNNIEST THIINGS:

An elementary school teacher was reviewing antonyms with her gifted first -grade & second-grade classes. She asked one of the boys for an antonym for "war." When he couldn't come up with a word, the teacher offered a hint: "When I go to church on Sundays, my minister always prays for world peace, the opposite of war. Does your pastor pray for peace?" "I don't know," the student replied, "because my church prays in tongues."

Faithful Citizenship

As Catholics, we are called to be active participants in public life. However, we also face a serious challenge when it comes to voting our conscience. Our Catholic Social Teachings challenge us to promote a consistent ethic of life that is not always supported by the culture of our nation. How do we discern our own role in protecting the sanctity of human life, from conception until natural death? How can we fight to defend the dignity of the unborn, the struggling family, the immigrant, and the elderly? How can we speak about our moral values in an increasingly secular world?

The Office for Parish Life will be hosting information sessions and discussions on Voting with a Catholic Conscience, using the USCCB's 2018 "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship." Dates for upcoming events are: Monday, October 29th Our Lady Queen of Peace, Brodheadsville, from 6:30 P.M.—8P.M..
