Legion of Mary Corner

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Presidium,
Our Lady of the Lakes Church
Our Lady of Refuge, St. John's Church

During Lent, we generally think about Jesus' suffering and death. However, how often do we think about the suffering of his mother, Mary?

Mary's Motherhood

- At the Annunciation, Mary became Mother of the Redeemer by giving Him the human nature with which He offered Himself on the cross. At the Resurrection, She received Him in Her arms, after having received from Him on Calvary the Motherhood of the Church.
- At the Annunciation, Mary accepted her vocation to suffer with her Son in His mission of redeeming the world from sin. On Easter Sunday, She shared with Him in the joy of His glorious Resurrection.

On behalf of the Legion of Mary we would like to wish all of you're a Blessed Easter. Let us not stop here. Let's continue the work that our Blessed Mother has asked us to do. Ave Maria.

"Immaculate Mary your praises we sing. You reign now in splendor with Jesus our King. Ave, Ave, Ave Maria. Ave, Ave Maria."

As we enter Holy Week, we celebrate the gift of the Eucharist as our heavenly food. We continue to reflect on the challenge of global hunger. How does our faith inspire us to share the gifts that God has bestowed on us? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Annual Catholic Appeal

The Diocese has postponed the ACA until later in the year. Our first priority is the health of our family of faith, for we are truly "One Faith, One Family".

Stewardship Reflections

"As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross." MATTHEW 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him "carry his cross". These opportunities aren't usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person's needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"The Lord God has given me a well trained tongue, that I may know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them….The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame."

May the Word of God stir us to begin this Holy Week with a deep desire to grow closer to the Lord. The events we recall are not to be seen as a story of how great was Jesus' love for us then, but to seek and find Him and discover His unending love for us today. The saving work of Jesus is taking place right now. As I begin this week, I look for His saving grace in my life, my home, our world. We enter into this saving work as He entered the holy city. We unite ourselves to Him, as we sit at the last supper, weep in Gethsemane, walk to Calvary, and await the good news of the resurrection.

Holy Week does not just happen; it calls me to live the drama of the paschal mystery with Him.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

In a tone of quiet sadness, Isaiah describes the buffets and insults given to the Suffering Servant. The passage ends on a note of hope.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

In exultant tones, Paul tells the Philippians to rejoice because Christ became man, died on the cross, rose from the dead, and sits triumphantly at the right hand of the Father.

Gospel: Matthew 26:14—27:66

This is the solemn narrative of the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew recounts the treachery and betrayal of Judas and then describes the events of the Last Supper, culminating in the institution of the Eucharist. Jesus endures the Agony in the Garden; he is then brought before Caiaphas and Pilate and condemned to death. After His resurrection, the centurions shouted, "Clearly this was the Son of God!"

An Act of Spiritual Communion

by St. Alphonsus Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Coronavirus Prayer

Dear Lord,
We humbly ask for your divine intervention to bring a quick end to this pandemic. Please heal and cure the sick and comfort the grieving. May your peace replace every anxious and fearful thought, and your wisdom replace any impulsive actions.
We ask for strength, protection, and energy for all healthcare providers, first responders, and emergency responders; and medical researchers as well as success in their endeavors.
We pray for wisdom, knowledge, counsel, and fortitude for leaders in every arena.
Please minimize and reverse the financial devastation that is happening to individuals, families, institutions and businesses.
Please provide for all who are displaced and in need in any way.
May people turn to you in renewed ways and know you to be the source of their help, strength, peace and hope during these uncertain times and all times.
We ask all of this through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen.

How did we get the Stations of the Cross?

The Stations of the Cross or Way of the Cross is a tradition of our Catholic faith. It tells the story of Jesus' last hours and a powerful reminder of His sacrifice for us. By participating in the devotion Catholics have the opportunity to gain a plenary indulgence. (A partial indulgence removes part of the temporal punishment due for sins. A plenary indulgence removes all of it.) See the inside cover of The Way of the Cross booklet used in our church.

While the devotion is most familiar during Lent and Good Friday, Catholics can pray the Stations of the Cross any time of the year.

There is a tradition that holds that our Blessed Mother visited the location of Jesus' passion often.

In 312, after Constantine, Emperor of Rome, legalized Christianity the pathway was marked. Pilgrims from all Christian areas visited Jerusalem to walk in the steps of Jesus.

In the fifth century, because the journey to Jerusalem was long and extremely costly, these "holy places" were "reproduced" locally. St Petronius, Bishop of Bologna, built a number of chapels at the monastery of San Stefano which depicted important shrines in the Holy Land, including several stations.

In 1342, the Franciscans were appointed as guardians of the shrines in the Holy Land.

Willian Wey, an English pilgrim who visited the Holy Land in 1462, is credited with the term, "stations". In his writings, he described how the pilgrims followed the path Jesus took to Calvary.

When the Muslims prevented Christian pilgrims from visiting the Holy Land, reproductions of the stations were built throughout Europe including Messina, Italy; Nuremberg, Germany; Louvain, France and Antwerp, Belgium and are among the most famous. Many of the reproductions were made by renowned artists and are considered masterpieces of art today.

In the sixteenth century, devotional books appeared which had 14 stations with prayers for each station. Because of the continued Muslim persecution of Christians, Pope Innocent XI granted the right to the Franciscan Order to erect stations in all their churches in 1686. And, that the indulgences gained by the Franciscans, and those affiliated with them, would be the same as those who made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Pope Benedict XIII extended the indulgences to all Catholics in 1726.

The Stations of the Cross is another treasure of Catholic traditions and is a wonderful source of grace and consolation.
