Reflection from.....Sister Kathy

Prayer

It's wonderful to begin the new year with great hope and enthusiasm, and hopefully we are among them. But we know many people who are confused or discouraged. It's easy to say we will pray for them, but what is it that we believe we are doing? Many people, perhaps even friends and relatives, do not seem to pray or have any desire to do so. Yet we come from a tradition that tells us that prayer should be as natural as breathing, that prayer should be like the life-giving oxygen that keeps us alive and aware of the goodness of life.

Perhaps the confusion comes from our understanding of prayer. If we think of prayer only of asking God to grant us particular favors, which are often not granted, then perhaps prayer does not seem all that useful. Or if we think of prayer as a simple acknowledgment of God's sovereignty, then we might feel that prayer is not needed. But prayer is much more than either of these two examples. It is the grounding of our understanding of life and life's worth.

It is helpful to recognize that God does not need our prayer, whether it be one of adoration, thanksgiving or petition. We are the ones who need prayer. We need prayer to connect us to the meaning of life, to a God of goodness who desires the fullness of life for all creation. We need prayer to help us understand that we live in relationship- first of all to a generous God who pours out life and infuses us with the Spirit of possibility. And prayer helps us acknowledge our relationships to others, to those who share our family history, our community ties, and our daughtership and sonship as God's children. Prayer puts us into relationship with the earth, God's creation which God found very good.

So why do we pray? We pray because life is too confusing, too vast, and too incomprehensible for us to handle by ourselves. We pray because we need meaning to frame our daily actions and routine. We pray because without prayer our relationships are passing and fragile. We pray simply because we need God.

SOLEMNIDAD DE LA EPIFANÍA DEL SEÑORLECTURAS DE HOY*1ª Lectura: Is 60, 1-6 | 2ª Lectura: Ef 3, 2-3a. 5-6Evangelio: Mt 2, 1-12Reflexión*“Entraron en la casa; vieron al Niño con María su madre y, postrándose, le adoraron”

Hoy, el profeta Isaías nos anima: «Levántate, brilla, Jerusalén, que llega tu luz; la gloria del Señor amanece sobre ti» (Is 60,1). Esa luz que había visto el profeta es la estrella que ven los Magos en Oriente, con muchos otros hombres. Los Magos descubren su significado. Los demás la contemplan como algo que les parece admirable, pero que no les afecta. Y, así, no reaccionan. Los Magos se dan cuenta de que, con ella, Dios les envía un mensaje importante por el que vale la pena cargar con las molestias de dejar la comodidad de lo seguro, y arriesgarse a un viaje incierto: la esperanza de encontrar al Rey les lleva a seguir a esa estrella, que habían anunciado los profetas y esperado el pueblo de Israel durante siglos.

Llegan a Jerusalén, la capital de los judíos. Piensan que allí sabrán indicarles el lugar preciso donde ha nacido su Rey. Efectivamente, les dirán: «En Belén de Judea, porque así está escrito por medio del profeta» (Mt 2,5). La noticia de la llegada de los Magos y su pregunta se propagaría por toda Jerusalén en poco tiempo: Jerusalén era entonces una ciudad pequeña, y la presencia de los Magos con su séquito debió ser notada por todos sus habitantes, pues «el rey Herodes se sobresaltó y con él toda Jerusalén» (Mt 2,3), nos dice el Evangelio.

Jesucristo se cruza en la vida de muchas personas, a quienes no interesa. Un pequeño esfuerzo habría cambiado sus vidas, habrían encontrado al Rey del Gozo y de la Paz. Esto requiere la buena voluntad de buscarle, de movernos, de preguntar sin desanimarnos, como los Magos, de salir de nuestra poltronería, de nuestra rutina, de apreciar el inmenso valor de encontrar a Cristo. Si no le encontramos, no hemos encontrado nada en la vida, porque sólo Él es el Salvador: encontrar a Jesús es encontrar el Camino que nos lleva a conocer la Verdad que nos da la Vida. Y, sin Él, nada de nada vale la pena.

Por: Rev. D. Joaquim VILLANUEVA i Poll (Barcelona, España)
