Reflection from Sr. Marjorie…

This year the Carmelite Order and the Church commemorate the 300th anniversary of the canonization of St. John of the Cross and the 100th anniversary of his being declared a Doctor of the Church.

As a novice, I was hesitant to read the works of St. John of the Cross, co-founder of the Carmelite Reform begun by St. Teresa of Jesus. I was not inspired by talk of "dark night" and "inordinate attachments." A wise Carmelite encouraged me to first read a biography of John before delving into his works. That advice made all the difference. I found in John of the Cross a kindly, compassionate, and understanding friar who spent hours each day in the confessional. John was spiritual director to nuns, friars, and people from all walks of life in their search for God. How could such a person be seen as severe?

John is considered one of Spain's greatest poets. His poetry expresses the longings of the human heart for "something more," longings that only God can satisfy.

When we feel bombarded by the noise, sights, and distractions of life, John encourages us to remain quiet in God's presence: "What we need most in order to make progress [in prayer] is to be silent before this great God…for the language God best hears is silent love." At peace in God's loving presence, old attachments and amusements feel trivial.

John of the Cross' Letters are gems and present him as a spiritual guide with a keen understanding of the human heart. He eloquently uses images of nature to describe the experience of seeking and finding God: in woods and thickets, meadows and flowers, the mountains and valleys, islands, rivers, the tranquil night, silent music, and sounding solitude.

The feast of St. John of the Cross falls on December 14. John urges us to prepare a home in our hearts for the Word of God, whose coming we await. For anyone not familiar with St. John of the Cross, Advent is a good time to learn about this great saint and his writings. Today's God seekers will not be disappointed.

Cardinal's Appeal

The mission of the Archdiocese of New York is to live and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The archdiocese serves 2.5 million Catholics, as well as countless others, across the New York City boroughs of Manhattan, Staten Island, and the Bronx, as well as in the counties of Dutchess, Orange, Sullivan, Westchester, Ulster, Rockland, and Putnam. The Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal, a critical component of the archdiocese mission, raises funds to sustain the various ministries, institutions, and outreach programs that serve thousands of individuals and families throughout New York.

Our assigned goal for 2026 is $54,000. Of this $38,387 has been pledged, and $38,087 has been paid. When you donate, please put the Parish number - #405 – on both the envelope and the check. This will ensure our parish gets credit for your donation. As usual, our parishioners' generosity shines forth. A sincere thank you to all who have donated so far. There have been issues with checks being mailed and not being received. Please put your envelope in the collection basket on Sunday. We will collect them and the Cardinal's Appeal representative will pick them up.

Reflexión de la Hna. Marjorie…

Este año, la Orden del Carmelo y la Iglesia conmemoran el 300.º aniversario de la canonización de San Juan de la Cruz y el 100.º aniversario de su proclamación como Doctor de la Iglesia.

Cuando era novicia, me daba reparo leer las obras de San Juan de la Cruz, cofundador de la Reforma carmelita iniciada por Santa Teresa de Jesús. No me inspiraban las referencias a la «noche oscura» y a los «apegos desordenados». Un sabio carmelita me animó a leer primero una biografía de Juan antes de adentrarme en sus obras. Ese consejo marcó la diferencia. En Juan de la Cruz descubrí a un fraile amable, compasivo y comprensivo que pasaba horas cada día en el confesionario. Juan era director espiritual de monjas, frailes y personas de todos los ámbitos de la vida en su búsqueda de Dios. ¿Cómo podría considerarse severa a una persona así?

Juan es considerado uno de los más grandes poetas de España. Su poesía expresa los anhelos del corazón humano por «algo más», anhelos que solo Dios puede satisfacer.

Cuando nos sentimos abrumados por el ruido, las imágenes y las distracciones de la vida, Juan nos anima a permanecer en silencio ante la presencia de Dios: «Lo que más necesitamos para avanzar [en la oración] es guardar silencio ante este gran Dios… pues el lenguaje que Dios mejor escucha es el amor silencioso». En paz ante la presencia amorosa de Dios, los antiguos apegos y entretenimientos se vuelven insignificantes.

Las cartas de Juan de la Cruz son verdaderas joyas y lo presentan como un guía espiritual con un profundo conocimiento del corazón humano. Utiliza con elocuencia imágenes de la naturaleza para describir la experiencia de buscar y encontrar a Dios: en bosques y matorrales, praderas y flores, montañas y valles, islas, ríos, la noche tranquila, la música silenciosa y la soledad sonora.

La fiesta de San Juan de la Cruz se celebra el 14 de diciembre. Juan nos exhorta a preparar un hogar en nuestros corazones para la Palabra de Dios, cuya llegada esperamos. Para quienes no estén familiarizados con San Juan de la Cruz, el Adviento es un buen momento para conocer a este gran santo y sus escritos. Quienes buscan a Dios hoy en día no quedarán decepcionados.
