IS THERE A PATRON SAINT FOR THOSE WITH DOWN SYNDROME? Not yet ... but it may happen - for the Church is considering a geneticist, Dr. Jerome Lejeune, who, in 1958, discovered the extra chromosome on the 21st pair that causes Down syndrome. Some say that since he was an ardent, Pro-Life Catholic, he was denied the Nobel Peace Prize. He was named the first president of the Pontifical Academy for Life by Saint John Paul, with whom he dined just before the Pope's 1981 assassination attempt. Jerome Lejeune is a great potential intercessor for those dealing with Down syndrome, who may, in turn, be the miracle he needs to advance the cause for his Beatification and Canonization!

To entrust these persons to an already canonized Saint, turn to the 'unofficial' Patron Saint for those with Down syndrome: Saint Robert Bellarmine, Bishop & Doctor, whom we honor on his Feast Day: September 17. Here's his Collect:

Collect - Saint Robert Bellarmine, Bishop & Doctor

O God, who adorned the Bishop
Saint Robert Bellarmine with wonderful learning and virtue to vindicate the faith of your Church, grant, through his intercession, that in the integrity of that same faith your people may always find joy.
Through our Lord Jesus ... for ever and ever. Amen.

A BRILLIANT MIND & A TENDER HEART. Born October 4, 1542, Saint Robert Bellarmine became a distinguished Jesuit theologian, writer, Cardinal, and defender of the Catholic Faith against Protestant Reformers; he died on September 17, 1621. But as the image above, created by an Italian artist and sculptor, Alexander Kostner, suggests, he not only had a brilliant mind; he also had a most tender heart.

Saint Robert Bellarmine lived during difficult times; many Priests, Bishops - and even Popes - were corrupt. With so few holy spiritual leaders, and confusion from extremist Protestant Reformers, many truly were "like sheep without a shepherd." [Matthew 9:36] But in this bleak situation, Saint Robert Bellarmine and some of our greatest Saints - prevailed, not by condemning or excommunicating sinners - but by offering hope and reconciliation - and by heeding Jesus' command: "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." [Matthew 5:16]

Saint Robert Bellarmine is best known for: his scholarly writings and talks; refuting Protestant claims that much of what Catholicism professes is not biblically based; preparing two catechisms; and defending the Pope's 'right' to be involved in political and secular matters. While he oversaw the fiasco with Galileo, who was never excommunicated but merely asked NOT to state to the 'simple public' what they were not ready to digest or had been proven - Bishop Bellarmine revived interest in - and understanding of - Bible history and the teachings of the 'Church Fathers:' the Bishops and theologians who, from biblical times to the late 600's, hammed out our biblically based Creeds, dogmas and doctrines.

However, Archbishop Bellarmine showed his gentle compassion in his Archdiocese of Capua: the Italian 'Las Vegas' of the 1600's: a gambler's paradise, froth with the same sinful stuff some say ... "Stays in Vegas!" He gave from his own means to help those who 'lost everything' in 'sin city.' He began what we now call 'Gamblers' Anonymous,' and 'halfway houses' to reform prostitutes. He helped keep clerics and others convicted of 'sins of the flesh' or gambling debts from prison and sought to get them the help they needed to combat their sinful inclinations.

But what makes Saint Robert Bellarmine THE candidate for Patron Saint for those dealing with Down Syndrome was his fierce, Pro-Life defense of those who were often 'discarded' as 'lesser' or even 'non'- persons While it took centuries for the Church to officially state that those with intellectual or developmental disabilities should always be Baptized; confirmed, if possible; and may also receive the Eucharist as long as they can 'distinguish the body of Christ from ordinary food,' even if this recognition is evidenced through manner, gesture, or reverential silence rather than verbally. Saint Robert Bellarmine, Bishop & Doctor, pray for us!

With God's love and my prayers,

Father Mike

To The People of St. Mary Parish

It was William Shakespeare who once said: "Let never day nor night unhallowed pass but still remember what the Lord hath done." Today I come before God with a thankful heart: for His love, for His mercy, for the gift of His priesthood, and for the Parish Family of St. Mary, Rutherford.

Because of your love, I have experienced the movement of God in a most profound way. Please don't be sad that I am leaving; no priest wants to draw attention to himself, but only to God, who remains with you and moves among you.

At this time, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to all who have been part of my life here at St. Mary for the last 4 years; members of the Administrative Staff and Teachers. I am very thankful to all Parishioners who expended time and effort to know me better. I am especially grateful to Fr. Michael Kreder, our Pastor, for his trust in my abilities and giving me the opportunity to work with him. Fr. Mike, you are the thank you for your example of Priesthood. I owe heartfelt gratitude to those unrecognized and unknown People who prayed for me and showed goodness in any way. I will miss you all.

To my Parents - I never would have gotten this far without you. Finally, I am grateful to Almighty God for the many gifts and talents He has given me.

Today, I know too that we are all moving, changing, growing, so that we can be about our Father's business. In that, we'll always be together. Remember me, as I'll remember you, and in the language of prayer I'll always speak with you and keep in touch.

Sincerely in Christ,

CH (CPT) Fr. Peter Koziolkiewicz
