Women's Advent Retreat: "Finding Hope Through Prayer": Sat, Dec 14 from 9 AM to 1 PM at St. Francis of Assisi, 1046 W. Cedar St., Allentown

This is the final week of Opening the Gift: Your Second Holy Communion, which takes place in the parish hall during PREP (between the Sunday Masses). In this series John Meier talks about the Eucharist as foreshadowed and fulfilled in Sacred Scripture, and made present to us in the Holy Mass.

The "Order of Christian Initiation of Adults" (OCIA) is a continuous process of spiritual formation toward the "Sacraments of Initiation" (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist). Interested persons can enter the process, enter the Church, and receive the Sacraments at any* time, as together our parish perseveres in the lifelong journey of discipleship. *Some restrictions apply; for specifics call the Rectory or talk to Father Zelonis or Deacon Joe.

Elderly, infirm parishioner is seeking help with house cleaning and personal care needs according to a mutually convenient schedule. Please call Stella at 610-377-1348.

We are preparing for the annual celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe with a Hot Breakfast on Sunday, Nov 17, from 8 AM to Noon. $12 for adults, $6 for children, 4 > free.

This weekend observes World Mission Sunday, which always happens on the 2nd-to-last Sunday in October. In 1822, Blessed Pauline Jaricot founded the “Society for the Propagation of the Faith,” which gained Pontifical Status such that Pope Pius XI, a century later, made universally mandatory the Society’s WMS collection, of which the U.S. once was a major beneficiary and is now a major contributor.

The Pope annually chooses a theme for the day, and this year Francis directs our attention to Matthew 22:9, which reads in part, “Go and invite everyone to the banquet.” As the king in Jesus’ parable sought the broadest possible representation at his table, so the Church—by her very nature missionary—in every place and time calls everyone to the fullness of love and unity in the Mystical Body.

Thank you to all who attended any parts of our Forty Hours Devotions. May these days bear great fruit for our parish, its families, and communities! Thank you, especially, to our deacon preachers, to the Angelorum Choir, to our musicians and decorators.

SVDP NEWS

The Society continues to appreciate and share non-perishable food donations dropped off in the vestibule or at the Rectory during office hours.

Vincent’s Closet makes available (only by appointment) the following donations we request from you: Socks, toilet paper, feminine products, deodorant, shaving cream, shampoo/conditioner, bug spray, laundry detergent, & dish soap. These can all go in the bin in the vestibule. Additional items now include backpacks, dishes, glasses, pots and pans, cooking utensils, toys, small appliances, etc. To donate such items, please call Esther in advance (570-657-6738); please do not place those items in the vestibule clothing bin. We welcome cash & gift cards designated in the collection or office.

+SVDP Conferences exercise evangelical poverty in solidarity with those they serve, relying on the Providence of God through His people who are generous with what He gave them. Conferences tend to keep a “low balance,” not hoarding money but sending donations as they arrive.

YOUTH & FAMILY NEWS

The Diocesan Priest Convocation will take place Tues 10/23 thru Fri, 10/26, during which Father will be away and celebrating the previously requested intentions. A schedule of Masses available during those days is posted in the vestibule (none in the Carb).

Fiscal Fancies: HIGHER PRIORITY Grounds: Security cameras; replacement of sidewalk on Coal St. side (bid approved; awaiting zoning permit and other next steps); updates to the restrooms. For the cemetery: resurfacing of asphalt roads. LOWER PRIORITY For the church: A quiet HVAC. For the parish hall: drop ceiling with LED light fixtures. Grounds: LED Announcement Sign. Know anyone who’d want to bid on any of the above? Mention it to Father Zelonis, Deacon Joe, or Carl Marzen. You can help through our periodic fundraising events, with donations, and by remembering the parish and/or the Diocese in your will, investments, etc.

A perfect running day at St. Jane’s in Easton for the Diocesan Cross Country Championship! First up, Luke Keer placed 34th out of 68 in the mile, 1:15 faster than his previous time on that course, despite a pesky side stitch (TYKYK). + SJNRS runner Cameron Gowin (5/6 boys) gritted out 1.5m in 12:02 (23/36). Nic Keer took an admirable 2nd out of 36 in 9:07, suffering a last-minute upset of .19 seconds at the finish line, as cross country matches often experience. Thank you for supporting our runners!

The CYO District Spelling Bee at SJNRS featured parishioners Lily Gregory (7th), Andrew & Jacob Rodenbach (6th), who all placed. Congratulations!

SSPP CYO welcomes any elementary boys or girls from public or Catholic schools to participate in activities.

Upcoming CYO Events: Diocesan Spelling Bee (gr 6-8) Nov 10, 1 PM in SSPP Parish Hall; Bowling Tournament Nov 16 at 3 PM at Fritz Lanes on 2nd Street. Sign up by calling Phil (610-217-4768)

Several of our young parishioners attend our local Catholic schools (mariancatholic.org, sjrschool.com, and sjnrschool.org). Those students and their families are the best “evangelizers” for the academic, artistic, and athletic excellence in their schools, all of which is steeped in Catholic faith and mutual charity. Scholarship funds are available, and you may be surprised at who qualifies. Consider donating such funds for a tax break (call the respective school FMI).

For more info on the value of Catholic education, talk to Katya Fitzpatrick, St. Jerome Regional School’s new English Language Arts teacher for 5th, 7th, and 8th grades, or Dr. Christopher Heery, Principal of St. John Neumann Regional School. Deep discounts available for new transfers to all our diocesan schools!

St. Jerome Regional School’s annual Basket Bonanza is on Fri, Nov 22 and Sat, Nov 23 at the Lakeside Ballroom. They still need prizes (items and gift cards) no less than $25 and the sky is the limit.

St. John Neumann Regional School is hosting their 2nd annual Handmade Christmas Market on Saturday, Nov 16 from 10 AM to 3 PM in their gymnasium, adjacent to Sacred Heart Church on Delaware Ave in Palmerton. Featuring over 30 local artisans, selfies with Santa, raffles, donation drives, homemade food and baked goods, and so much more!

SJNRS is currently accepting applications for this juried craft show. All items must be handmade by the showcasing artist. For info or application, contact coordinator Erica Heery-Wallace (484-225-8295 / ericaheery@yahoo.com).

SJNRS is hosting a Trunk-or-Treat on Saturday, Oct 26 from Noon-3 PM in the Sacred Heart parking lot. Refreshments are available for purchase in the school gym.

+Basketball sign-ups (boys/girls grades 4-8), call Phil Liszka (610-217-4768) or see Ed Rodenbach. XC Signups (No activity fee; Boys & Girls, K-8: contact Moderator

The Shipwreck-Harvest

Christy M. Nelson

Diversely iterated inspiration, information, and entertainment since 2004

An online friend, Father Chase Goodman of the Diocese of Victoria (TX) has been publishing on his parish Facebook page an excellent series on the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which I am summarizing. This week's material gets to the heart of our journey in discipleship: the ins and outs of prayer.

Regular examination of conscience and confession helps us to see patterns of sin as well as the sometimes seemingly insignificant root causes and conditions known in the Act of Contrition as "near occasions of sin": the people, places, and things that make sins easier to choose.

Even further, sins have underlying emotions and desires worth consideration, though not worth confession because they are not in and of themselves sinful. Recovering addicts try to avoid getting too hungry, angry, lonely, or tired (HALT). But we need to become aware of ourselves in those states, and here's where distractions do us dirty.

While distractions are a regular part of life—some would say they are life—we want to learn how to deal with them well. When we want to dedicate ourselves to prayer, instead we start to think about errands, what we should have said, a show we watched or want to watch, upcoming appointments, fears and worries, and prayer takes a back seat.

Prepare for prayer as much as possible. Deliberately reserve the time and space as much as one might for a spouse or friend (and even that is getting harder today!). In the same way, examining one's conscience deserves an unpressured block of time, especially if the span since your last confession is long.

Examinations frequently bid us consider not only where we committed sins in the day, but more broadly, where God was offering me grace, where God was calling me to be holy? If I don't recall anything, that betrays a lack of sensitivity, as God is always lavishing such opportunities upon us. Notice!

We conclude this brief (2-3 minute) period by resolving to do better, praying for greater sensitivity to the presence and invitations of God, and thanking Him for the good we did accomplish, all by His grace!

While checklists help (think the back of our Treasury of Prayer book), the moral life is more than a checklist. In the Gospels, Jesus calls us to interiorize the commandments, to affirm their basis in the knowledge and love of God's will, where true happiness lies.

While the Treasury focuses on the Ten Commandments, a reliable guide for sure, and further gives the nod to the Precepts of the Church, there are the Beatitudes, the capital sins, and the works of mercy, corporal and spiritual. Examinations become more thorough, beyond self-centered navel-gazing to where God wants us to invest in relationships and responsibilities.

Stop excusing yourselves for "not killing anyone or running around." Big whoop! Jesus said murder and adultery start in the heart. Look out for ways to show charity and tolerance, check motives for actions, seek peace and justice, and the needle starts moving toward the Lord's ideal for living. Next week I will cite a more detailed plan meant for more than monks.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Mark 10:35-45

When James and John ask Jesus if they can be seated with Him in Heaven, they are told only God decides this. To gain a place in Heaven Jesus tells the twelve, they must be servants to others, not expect to be served.
