PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Jesus, Divine Shepherd of souls, you called the Apostles to be fishers of men. Send us holy priests, O Lord through the intercession of Mary, Mother and Model of all vocations. Let your call be heard and answered by generous and courageous men to meet the pressing needs of your Church and the world. Come, Lord, do not delay. Send to your Church holy priests! Amen.

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

In this passage, Peter testifies that he and his followers saw the miracles performed by Christ, witnessed His death, and believe in His resurrection. Now they will proclaim to all that Christ is the Son of God.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Paul tells the Colossians that they will appear with Christ in glory. They should be mindful of things above rather than things on earth.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

In vivid detail, John tells us that when Mary Magdalene visited Christ’s tomb, the tomb was empty. She told the apostles, who ran to the tomb, and saw the “wrappings” on the ground. The disciple who entered first “saw and believed.”

BREAD AND WINE

Pastor's Corner

My Dear Parishioners,

Today's psalm expresses joy and thanksgiving at the miraculous deeds of a God who overturns the valuations of this world, delivers from death, and works wonders from unlikely materials and circumstances. Witnesses of God's power for life must declare it to others.

On such a joyful day, it is startling that the Gospel reading emphasizes confusion. Resurrection cracks open the limits of what we thought possible. Mary of Magdala, Simon Peter, and the beloved disciple look for the body of the Lord. They find an empty tomb and burial cloths rolled and stowed in a neat bundle. Like Lazarus before him, Jesus no longer had need of them. Yet, even for those who had hoped in the resurrection, the evidence of life beyond death is so unexpected and shocking that other explanations compete for belief. Mary's encounter with the risen Christ prompts recognition, understanding and witnessing.

Peter's sermon continues this work of witnessing a theme that recurs throughout the passage. "We are witnesses of all that he did, witnesses chosen by God in advance," commissioned to testify. The prophets, too, "bear witness." To witness is not simply to see. It is to give reliable testimony. Modes of witnessing, according to Peter, include prophecy and preaching. Its content includes Jesus' ministry and miracles, his death and resurrection, and his future role as judge of the living and dead. Its purpose is for the forgiveness of sins. Participants in the Mass will hear elements of the Nicene Creed in Peter's sermon. In reciting the Creed, we too give witness to the risen Christ.

Christians also give witness in the shape of our lives. In the waters of baptism, Christians participate in Christ's death in order also to participate in Christ's resurrection. Jesus' ascension to heaven provides a point of orientation, ordering desire and will toward "what is above."

Fr. Jacob Thumma

Keep smiling. 😊

HAPPY EASTER

All of us here at St. Ann's would like to wish you and your family the joyfulness of a Blessed Easter.

May our celebration of the Resurrection nourish our faith, increase our hope, and strengthen our love for each other.

Happy Easter

Priests & Staff

SAINT ANN SCHOOL NEWS

Happy Easter!! May all the blessings of the Risen Christ be a part of your family and friends this beautiful time of year. Throughout this Lenten season, the children of Saint Ann School have been giving back to our community and our parish. They have spearheaded four different campaigns to benefit the most needy families: Alex's Lemonade Stand; St. Jude's Children's Hospital; Tunnel to Towers; and the Richmond County Hospital NICU unit. They have been able to donate $1000 to each charity. I am so proud of their commitment to helping others.

Thank you for supporting our Calendar Raffle this year. As has been in the past, it was a tremendous success. The last winners are:

NAMES ON SICK LIST

We, as a parish family, open our hearts to God in prayer for His healing touch and our people on the Sick List. Our thoughts are always with their loved ones.

Usually, the names remain on our Sick List in the bulletin for 8 weeks. Please call the rectory if a name needs to be put back on.

CARDINAL'S APPEAL 2026

Please know how grateful we are as a parish family for your generous support of the Cardinal's Appeal last year. The Cardinal's Appeal goal for our parish for this year is $163,700.

Formation programs are vital for preparing compassionate, knowledgeable, and faith-filled lay and religious leaders to guide our parishes and communities. Your generosity supports St. Joseph's Seminary, enabling their spiritual, intellectual, and apostolic development.

Additionally, your gift ensures retired priests, who have dedicated their lives to serving the Church, are provided with a dignified retirement at the St. John Vianney Clergy Residence.

Through the Appeal, $3 million supports the education of our future parish priests and provides a caring home in their retirement.

To make a gift, scan the QR code, visit cardinalsappeal.org or call 646-794-3300 today.

Thank you for your consideration and for being loving and generous stewards of our archdiocese and its mission. God bless.
