PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Jesus, Divine Shepherd of souls, you called the Apostles to be fishers of men. Send us holy priests, O Lord through the intercession of Mary, Mother and Model of all vocations. Let your call be heard and answered by generous and courageous men to meet the pressing needs of your Church and the world. Come, Lord, do not delay. Send to your Church holy priests! Amen.

First Reading: Revelations 7:2-4, 9-14
John recounts for us the details of his vision. An angel bearing the seal of the living God demands that the land and sea not be destroyed; huge crowds stand before the throne of the Lamb crying out that salvation comes from God; angels gathered round and praised God; an elder questions John and explains that those dressed in white are the ones who have survived the great period of trial.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
Once again John speaks to us of love. He points out to us the great love that the Father has for us by allowing us to be called children of God. John explains that the world doesn't recognize us because it never recognized Jesus. Our future will be revealed to us and in that light we shall see him as he is.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a
When Jesus saw the crowds of people he went up to the mountainside gathered his disciples around him and began to teach them. This lesson in love has come to be known to us as the great "Sermon on the Mount" or "The Beatitudes."

Pastor's Corner

My Dear Parishioners,

Walking with the Saints and Remembering Our Loved Ones

As we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, I invite you to reflect on the beautiful example of the holy men and women who have gone before us. Their lives remind us that holiness is not reserved for a few; it is a calling for all of us. Through our love, kindness, forgiveness, and service to others, we too can grow closer to God each day. The Beatitudes in today's Gospel show us the way to live as faithful disciples of Christ.

As we enter the month of November, our thoughts and prayers turn especially to our beloved family members and friends who have died. Each of us carries precious memories of those we have loved and lost. Although they are no longer physically with us, our love for them remains, and our faith gives us the hope of eternal life in Christ.

During this holy month, let us remember our departed loved ones in a special way through our daily prayers, acts of charity, personal sacrifices, and, above all, the celebration of Holy Mass. As a parish family, we unite our prayers for all the faithful departed, asking the Lord in His mercy to welcome them into His eternal kingdom. We entrust them to God's loving care, trusting in His promise of the resurrection and everlasting life.

My dear friends, may the example of the saints inspire us to live holy lives, and may our prayers for the departed deepen our faith and strengthen our hope in the promise of heaven. Let us continue to pray for one another and remain united in the love of Christ, who conquers death and gives us the hope of new life.

May God bless you and your families, and may He grant eternal rest to all our beloved departed.

Fr. Jacob Thumma

Keep smiling.

ALL SOULS NOVENA

In the month of November we remember our deceased loved ones in a special way. We as a parish family, will offer a Novena of Masses for All Souls.

With tenderness and love the names inscribed on the envelopes will be placed in the sanctuary of our church for the whole month. Special All Souls envelopes can be found in our current packet of envelopes, or in the back of the church.

ROSARY SOCIETY

St. Ann's Rosary Society Meeting will be held on Saturday, November 7, 2026 after the 8:00 a.m. Mass in the Rectory Basement. All are welcome.

ST. ANN SCHOOL NEWS

What an amazing turnout for our first evening Trunk or Treat! Our families worked so hard on making this event a success. Thank you to the Grace Foundation for supplying the food. Thank you to Danny Estrella for supplying the music. There are too many people that worked on this event to mention; however, I must say thank you to our Home School Association, especially Tiffany Narducci and Jennilee Ruiz. We are so blessed to have so many amazing families volunteer their time and effort to make sure our kids have a great time.

Today is All Saints' Day, a Holy Day of Obligation. It honors all saints, those who were canonized and those whose names are unknown. It highlights their exemplary lives of faith, virtue and dedication to God. It serves as a reminder that doing the right thing, thinking of others first, and trusting in God should be the goal on our own spiritual journey. The children of St. Ann School will be learning about various different saints throughout the month but first, and foremost, St. Ann and St. Joachim. Can you imagine the faith that both of these people must have had to raise the mother of our Lord? It is mind boggling.

November is also a time to give thanks. This administration knows all too well how many people have helped us to continue to be the best little secret in Dongan Hills. I will always cherish your support and well wishes. We are special because you have helped us turn out young men and women who are faith based and academically ready to take on the world.

December 1st marks the beginning of registration for the 2027-2028 school year. If you are looking for a small traditional Catholic school who will take care of your child, academically challenge your child and teach them to respect and be kind to everyone, then St. Ann School is the place for you. We have already received calls for our kindergarten class, so please don't hesitate. Remember, any child in our 3-year-old program will have priority for our 4-year-old program. We still have some room in the 3-year-olds if you would like to start now.

Have a blessed week,

Mrs. Ficchi

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
