Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 4, 2024

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7

In this passage, Job laments the drudgery and pain all people sometimes experience in life. He talks of troubled days and restless nights. But he does mention that the days move along swiftly, which can remind us that our time here on earth is quite limited and should be well spent.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Paul explains to the Corinthians that he has no choice, but must preach the gospel. He tells of making himself all things to all people, in order to save some of them. He reminds them that he does this willingly, in the hope of sharing in the blessings of the gospel.

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

Jesus cured Simon and Andrew's mother of a fever, then others with illnesses or demons came to see him. He cured those who were ill, and cast out the demons of the others. Then he went off and prayed alone until his followers sought him out. Jesus and his disciples then moved on to other villages to proclaim the good news.

Our Catholic School: A Sign of Hope

Catholic Schools Week is upon us again, which always begins the last week of January. The time makes available the opportunity to celebrate the administrators, faculty, staff members and students who fill our classrooms, offices, playgrounds and cafeterias at St. Patrick School with affirming words in that each group of people add something special to our school. St. Patrick School dispenses a formidable frontline force of well-trained, well prepared faculty, administrators, and support staff that provides for the intellectual, social, physical, emotional, and spiritual development of our students. As a pastor, I am proud of our Catholic School and strive to generate the support required to nurture it with a loving presence.

Catholic School Education launches young people on a journey with Christ who navigates an environment filled with high, but reasonable expectations that are imposed on students. The captain of our ship, Dr. Christine Ross, our school principal, generates much enthusiasm from her faculty that demonstrates care to each student, which injects confidence into students in each grade level making them aware that they will succeed if there is determination to do so. At St. Patrick School the environment is challenging as school personnel work closely with parents through updated progress on each child's development. Our principal and faculty have dedicated themselves to professional development opportunities to ensure that students have an understanding of the necessary tools and resources to meet their educational needs.

St. Patrick School is a community of Faith, Knowledge and Service which plants a spirit of Catholic Identity into our academics aware that the centrality of our faith guides each child who has been entrusted to our parish school. Pope Francis notes that "Catholic Schools, which always strive to join their work of education with the explicit proclamation of the Gospel are a most valuable resource for the evangelization of a culture." Throughout my life I have met countless people who have been formed through Catholic Education aware that sometimes it takes years for individuals to realize the positive influence Catholic Education has on their decisions that helps develop self-reliance and self-worth so that a graduate may reach his/her potential in life; therefore, it is where the bright future of so many begins.

Our school fuels the parish with much energy and a loving presence from students who come together at weekday liturgies as well as through a host of parents who volunteer time to support the mission of the church with participation in ministries and committees. Like any ship sailing through the seas, sometimes some unanticipated storms or waves splash water onto the deck which makes moments of the journey more challenging than anticipated; however, in most cases these occasions invite the pastor, principal, faculty, parents and students to use their unique gifts to keep the ship afloat. St. Patrick School is an accredited school that has earned Blue Ribbon status as well as STEM certification in that it uses technology to effectively enhance education into the lives of the students, which also instills students the value of service to others, and cultivates a faculty and administration who are passionate, dedicated, caring and effective as it elevates the faith lives of students. Throughout this week (January 28 - February 3), St. Patrick School holds a variety of community building activities that range from liturgy to open houses so that all may take notice of the well-rounded education the children receive.

In its long history, St. Patrick School has built a quality education in the lives of many generations, which makes it attractive to families in the community. Families who send their children to St. Patrick School make an investment and financial sacrifice. St. Patrick School welcomes students from PK-3 through 8th grade, and provides after school care coupled with loving support and holistic programming that never underestimates anything that a student can do that guides a student to success in high school as well as a deep appreciation of life.

*In Christ's Love,
Fr. Bob*

You are invited this Lenten season to journey together with fellow seekers of God through three different types of prayer. Learn what works best for you as you take stock of where your faith journey is and grow deeper in the love of God.

Wednesday, February 28, at 7:00 PM: The Scriptural Rosary - The rosary prayed with short scriptural passages to bring us deeper into the mystery of the life of Christ.

Wednesday, March 6, at 7:00 PM: Lectio Divina - "Divine Reading" - a traditional practice of scriptural reading intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's word.

Wednesday March 13, at 7:00 PM: Centering Prayer - learning to find God in the silence. A daily practice bears the fruit of oneness with God in all things.

Teens and adults of all ages are invited to join us for one, two, or all three sessions! Babysitting will be provided by Youth Ministry!
