This Week in Scripture

“The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds, it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds...and the Lord will not delay.”

One of the most effective ways to begin prayer is to tell myself ‘I am going to have a conversation with the Lord.’ A conversation usually begins with a greeting and a willingness to listen, a two way street. The book of Sirach cited above encourages us as we begin our conversation. Am I convinced that the Lord is interested in my conversation? Do I believe He listens and responds as He sees fit? The Old Testament author cites the humble prayer of the widow and orphan and Jesus praises the prayer of the tax collector who prayed ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’ Enjoy your conversation.

My prayer is my exclusive moment to go one on one with the Lord.

At Home with the Word

This week (for further reflection):

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

God is just and does not show favoritism, but hears the prayers of everyone. Anyone who serves God, no matter how lowly his position here on earth, will be heard and answered.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Paul writes to Timothy that he thinks his mission is near the end, and he is glad his faith is still strong. Paul hopes that all nations will hear the gospel. But, if he is executed as he anticipates, he is sure he will live forever in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee who went to the temple, and offered up a prayer of thanks because he was not a sinner like the tax collector who was also there to pray. The tax collector was far more humble, acknowledging his sins, and asking forgiveness for them. Jesus said the tax collector's prayer would be heard because, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, while he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Next week (for prayerful preparation):

Wis 3:1-9; Rom 5:5-11; Jn 6:37-40

Ministers Schedule for November 1st & 2nd

The schedule is not yet available for the months of November & December. Ministers will be contacted once the schedule is ready.

Upcoming Schedule

October 27–30: St. Boniface Church will be the only site for Mass (for Lycoming County) during the Diocesan Priest Convocation. Father Cummings will offer an 8:00AM Mass on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of this week. Monday and Friday morning Masses and Thursday evening Confessions & Adoration remain unchanged.

Welcome to Saint Ann Catholic Church!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home, we invite you to become part of our family of faith and become fully involved in our life of word, worship, community, and service.

We invite all guests to register with the parish. Registration not only shows your commitment to our family, but may be necessary for certain benefits, such as the Sacraments. Registering is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of our parish. As parish members, we are all here to help each other on our spiritual journey – we don't want to do this alone! As much as you need us, we need you, too!! Please contact the Parish Office or visit our website (www.stannrcc.org) to register online.

 @saintannrccadoration

Let's talk about next weekend. That complicated weekend—Halloween, All Saints Day, All Souls Day. Three days that ask us to look in all sorts of directions—into the darkness, into the light, into the very face of death.

But, three days that speak of one great Christian mystery—Christ's triumph over sin and death.

Before Halloween became commercialized (and we probably could say the same in a few months about Christmas), the connections between these observances were a little more obvious. The dark side of Halloween, even the hellish side of Halloween with its ghosts and ghouls, had origins in Celtic religion. The darkening days of fall led people to reflect, often with some fear and anxiety, about what malignant spirits might be lurking in our world.

As the Church "baptized" all sorts of pagan customs (including the sun festivities around December's celebration of the Savior's birth), the scary Celtic feast became All Hallows Eve, an opportunity to look at the darkness that Christ had conquered, not only in his death and resurrection, but also in the faithful lives of the Saints.

The following day—All Souls—urged us to pray for those on their way to becoming saints. And not because they were in the pope's lineup for canonization, but because our sisters and brothers in purgatory are on their way to God's kingdom. We grieve for them, but we pray, knowing that our petitions can truly help them grow in God's powerful grace.

This year, Halloween does what it always does. But, All Saints falls on a Saturday—so, not a holy day of obligation! All Souls Day trumps our Sunday observance, so look for a shift in our prayers and readings as we remember and pray for the dead. And, remember, All Souls Day continues on in a certain sense: If we visit a cemetery or church between November 1 and November 8, we can gain a special grace for our beloved dead, an indulgence that certainly speeds their journey to heaven's banquet table.

HOLY LAND WOOD CARVINGS

November 1 & 2 Saint Ann Parish Hall

We are the Holy family carvings group, and we are proud to represent the Christian woodcarvers of Bethlehem. These artisans rely on tourism, but due to the war in Israel, they have lost their jobs and are unable to provide for their families.

Our goal is to sell beautiful hand-carved Olive Wood religious items, including Nativity Scenes, Crucifixes, Rosaries, Statues, Pictures of the Last Supper, and many other religious items, to Catholic Churches in the United States. By purchasing one of these exquisite items, you will be supporting the Christian families in the Holy Land and helping them provide for their families and maintain their jobs.

We invite you to take a moment to browse through the carvings that will be available on the weekend of November 1st & 2nd. By supporting this project, you are making a significant contribution towards keeping the Christian community present in the Holy Land.

Please join us in this worthy cause and help us make a difference. We deeply appreciate your support and understanding in this crucial matter.

Saint Boniface Parish Adult Faith Formation PEACE & JUSTICE

This series will explore the themes of peace and justice in relation to World War II, commemorating the 80th anniversary of the war's end. It will examine the historical context, ethical dilemmas, and the Roman Catholic Church's response, while integrating discussion, reflection, and Catholic moral and social teaching.

Wednesdays at 2:00 PM and 7:00 PM
St Lawrence Parish Hall
800 W Central Ave, South Williamsport

- October 22 – The Road to World War II:
Examining the causes of the conflict and the failure of peace efforts.
- October 29 – The Horrors of War:
Focusing on the human cost and ethical dilemmas presented by the war.
- November 5 – The Role of the Church:
Exploring the Church's involvement in resistance, aid, and witness during the war.
- November 12 – The Aftermath:
Discussing peacebuilding, justice, and reconciliation in the post-war era.
- November 19 – Lessons for Today:
Applying faith and historical insights to contemporary challenges, concluding with a focus on St. Pope John XXIII's 1963 encyclical, "Pacem in Terris", which outlines the Roman Catholic Church's teachings on establishing universal peace in truth, justice, charity, and liberty. This document is a significant statement advocating for peace, human rights, and social justice.

Jesus told a parable about one man who thought he was better than another man. Two men were in the temple praying. The pharisee exalted himself, boasting to God of how much better he was than the tax collector. Meanwhile, the tax collector stood alone, with bowed head, and humbly prayed that God would forgive his sins.

©2025 Bon Venture Services, LLC

Who did Jesus have mercy on and forgive?

The pharisee who thought he was without sin, or the sinful tax collector who was sorry for his sins.

Circle your answer then complete the puzzle below...

"O God, be merciful to me a sinner."

Luke 18:13

- Tax Collector -

"O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity."

Luke 18:11

- Pharisee -

Write the alphabet letters not found in the temple.

Unscramble the letters
above and fill in the blanks to complete the sentence below.

Jesus said, I tell you, the latter (tax collector), went home justified, not the former (pharisee); for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who _____ himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14
