MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

In 1997 when I arrived at St. Christopher's as your pastor, I wrote a letter for the parish bulletin introducing myself to those who didn't know me and renewing my relationship with those whom I knew when I was here in the early Seventies as a newly ordained priest. The following week I put in a letter for some purpose I don't remember. People told me they liked my weekly letter. In this way the weekly letter was born. That was twenty-nine years ago. I have enjoyed doing this and I have found that it was a good way to keep you "in the know." This is my very last letter. Starting Monday you will have a new pastor Father Philip Bochanski. I know you will embrace him as you have me. My new title will be Pastor Emeritus.

I have to tell you that I was overwhelmed by the presence of so many of you at the Mass celebrating my retirement and also by the number of people who came to the reception afterwards. I have to admit that I was in some way dreading last weekend. I feared that it was going to be somewhat like a funeral. It turned out to be anything but that. The love I felt that day will sustain me for a very long time.

My new address is Villa St. Joseph, 1436 Lansdowne Ave., Darby, PA 19023. Ironically it is right up the street from Blessed Virgin Mary Parish where I served as a deacon before being ordained a priest. I would actually stop and visit the retired priests in this facility. Now I am going to live here myself! It is a good distance from St. Christopher's but you can get here in little less than an hour. Yes, I am open to visitors. Just call my cell phone at 215 582 9080 to make sure I am available to see you.

It is the challenge of any pastor to leave a place better than he found it. My first priority was you the people. That included personal interaction and programs in the parish with emphasis on our fantastic parish school. After that came the buildings and grounds. The new things in the Church which most people seem to enjoy are the upgraded bathrooms and the cushioned seats in the pews. Our younger parishioners are very pleased with the new community center where they can have sports as well as cultural events.

It is an unusual thing for a priest to serve in a single parish as long as I have. It has been a real blessing for me and I hope for you. May God continue to bless you all, and know that I will always love you and I will never forget you.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Joe
