Ministry Highlight—Respect Life Ministry

“O Blessed Mother you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ your Son with faith and trust. God creator and lover of all life, guide our parish as we strive to continue to make our parish community a place of welcome and assistance for mothers in need.”

Saint Teresa of Calcutta and our own Little Sisters of the Poor follow Jesus’s teaching as they care for the personhood and value of the elderly, body and soul. Come join our Respect Life Ministry as we work together to build a culture of life and a civilization of love from conception to natural death.

The Respect Life Ministry meets each month on the first Tuesday at 7:00 PM in the Religious Education Room of the Church. All are WELCOME!

And how does our Respect Life Ministry help build that “culture of life?” You saw some of that two weeks ago with their displays in the vestibules. These echo some of what’s always available on the pamphlet/flyer racks in the Church (and yes, I need to get more labels for those shelves—my bad!) which cover topics like infertility, grieving through a miscarriage and elder-care concerns. The Ministry also coordinates witness at local Planned Parenthood offices and the Marches for Life to DC and Harrisburg. (With the Supreme Court decision reverting the abortion issue to the states, the march to Harrisburg has taken more poignancy now than in years past.) The Ministry also works with the Knights of Columbus with the Baby Bottle fundraiser supporting crisis centers that also advocate for Life. And together, those organizations sponsor and lead the parish’s Day of Prayer for Life on the anniversary of the Roe v. Wade decision.

Information, witness, and support. Three important aspects of this Ministry that in some ways are part of all ministries. And also like many ministries, there’s a local dimension as well as a larger one. In this case, it’s important questions of policy on a national scale. We often talk using the language of “rights.” And that’s necessary and appropriate. But if the fundamental rights aren’t being respected and protected, in policy and in practice, it doesn’t make much sense to talk about those other rights.

God bless.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 25, 2026

First Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

This passage from the book of Exodus enjoins all to adhere to specific religious and social laws. It urges all to act with justice and compassion towards others.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Paul praises the Thessalonians for receiving the word of God so eagerly and totally. Word of their faithfulness has spread throughout Macedonia and Greece; they have become a model for all Christians.

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

Matthew recounts the incident in which a lawyer, seeking to entrap Jesus, asks, "Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?" With simplicity and authority, Jesus responds that the first commandment is to love God with one's entire being; the second is to love one's neighbor as oneself.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Thus says the Lord: You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry...I will hear him, for I am compassionate."

Note, from the earliest recorded scriptures, through the Acts of the Apostles, and the works of mercy in the church through the centuries, we were instructed to care for the most vulnerable among us. Today may I pause and ask if our policies and actions respond to the command of love of God and neighbor? The question is directed to my attitude and action. The twofold sides of the same coin.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

We at Corpus Christi believe in supporting family and friends who are walking through their journey of grief after the loss of a loved one.

This is a special way to remember the faithful departed during the month of November. All are invited to the Liturgy.

Did you know that many children and adults go without a coat each winter? Many children cannot afford this vital necessity. A warm coat means a child can attend school, play and do other things that kids do to be kids.

The Knights of Columbus, Fr. John E. Doyle Council is once again sponsoring a Coats for Kids drive to benefit the children of our sister parish, Visitation BVM in the Kensington section of Philadelphia and Catholic Services in Philadelphia.

We encourage you to donate new or lightly used winter clothing on the weekends of October 31/November 1 and November 7/8. In lieu of clothing, cash or check donations will be accepted with proceeds being used to buy new coats directly through the Coats for Kids program. Make checks payable to: Knights of Columbus Council #9715.

For more information, please contact Mike Becker at 215.896.4691 or visit the Fr. John E. Doyle council website at: <http://www.kofc9715.org/>. Thank you for your support!!

St. Stan's Adoration Chapel Security Code

St. Stanislaus Parish is blessed to share with the North Penn community, the St. Katharine Drexel Perpetual Adoration Chapel. During the last 26 years many visitors have come to spend time with Jesus, escaping the noisy, busy world. Adorers find peace, quiet, comfort and joy while sitting with Jesus. For the safety and security of the Blessed Sacrament and adorers, over the past year we have increased the hours that require a security code to enter the chapel.

Beginning Monday October 5th, a security code will be required at all hours to enter the chapel. You can contact your parish center if you need the code. To maintain the security of the chapel and visitors please do not share the code.
