Endings and beginnings...

Next weekend, we'll be joining in an "ending" and a beginning. We're also anticipating a new beginning around the Christmas holidays.

Our foster seminarian, Apurbo Ghagra, will be joining us for the annual Seminary Appeal talk. As a happy coincidence, we'll be hosting a KoC breakfast that Sunday which will give us a chance to say farewell and God's blessings to him.

Yes, he's getting ready to head back home in late December. As I noted before, the plan of formation for priests has taken some new aspects, and Apurbo's class is the first to experience them at St. Charles. Apurbo will be ordained to the diaconate at some point when he has returned home (we'll keep you posted as to the date and if we can connect to a livestream for it). He'll spend at least six months in service as a deacon and then be ordained to the priesthood. As is tradition in his country, they get ordained individually in their home towns. Again, we'll let you know when that's happening and if there will be a livestream link to take advantage of.

It will be tough to say goodbye. For many of us in the rectory, the sacristy and the office, Apurbo has been a welcome companion and a great help. His presence was always appreciated to help in liturgies, especially in times of fewer ministers. He also helped us get started on the MASSIVE backlog of shredding that faced the office and the archives room. We can actually walk around that room now. It's great 😊. And his companionship—to say nothing of his unique cooking style!—will also be missed. But, Apurbo, we send you home with our prayers, best wishes, and confidence in the success of your future ministry. Keep us in the loop as we will keep you in our hearts.

But endings also have beginnings. At the 11:30 AM Mass next Sunday, we'll be beginning the process for five candidates for Full Communion with the Church. Our prayers are with them as they formally begin the process to that communion. At a time when many seem to be withdrawing from commitment, it's encouraging and fulfilling to welcome people who WANT to make a commitment to the Lord and His Church. And for most of them, the reason they're doing this is that someone provided the witness and welcome that they needed to respond. So for all of us, keep up the witness and keep up the welcome. It means something.

And that beginning around the Christmas holidays? Stay tuned 😉. God bless.

Father Schiele

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 15, 2026

First Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31
An encomium for a good and worthy wife, this passage from Proverbs extols all the virtues which a worthy wife possesses – fidelity, industriousness, skill, charity to the poor, and fear of the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
Once again, Paul reassures the Thessalonians, who are anxious about the coming of Christ, that they need not fear being unprepared because they are "children of light."

Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30
Jesus narrates the parable of the talents – in the story, the silver pieces given to the three men. Two of the men invest their coins and double their worth, but the third buries his coins in the ground and earns no return. The message of Jesus is that we must use to the fullest the talents we have received.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life... Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates."

The book of Proverbs invites us to focus on the lofty task and the rich gifts of a noble and worthy woman. It gently, but surely, calls us to the basic requirement we have of respect for women. As a wife she is the essential helpmate for both of them to get to heaven.

Words like 'cherish', 'to have and hold' spoken at a wedding are to be lived by a couple, searching for ways to deepen their relationship and love on a daily basis. The source of marital strength is God's grace, found in the sacrament of marriage. May I consider the grace and seek the blessing of the church on my marriage.

MONTHLY FOOD COLLECTION

The monthly food collection for local food cupboards takes place THIS WEEKEND. Please leave your donations of non-perishable goods in the room next to the restrooms in the back of the Church. This room is open after all the Masses each weekend. Thank you for your participation.

PARISH BEAUTIFICATION

Do you like to weed, trim, edge, and plant to beautify your property? Perhaps you would consider helping a few weekends a year to beautify our grounds at Corpus Christi.

Our group of 13 volunteers cleaned many of the flower beds around the church building, as well as several of the parking lot islands. We logged over 130 hours and filled 150 large leaf bags, and we trimmed many tree branches. We have a little more to do before late fall and winter arrive and then we will go dormant like the plants. We are especially interested in talking with any parishioners who are professional landscapers to get some ideas and prices for a spring planting and mulching in early Spring 2027.

If you're interested in sharing your landscaping knowledge, weed-pulling muscles, and time, please contact Beth Rosato at 215.588.7435 or at ecrosato112@gmail.com

Jesse Tree Making Family Event:
Sunday, November 22nd after the 10:00 Mass

The Jesse Tree is a way of preparing for Advent by journeying through the stories on Jesus' family tree. Each day of Advent, read a Bible story about someone on Jesus' family tree and hang an ornament symbolizing the story on your Jesse Tree. As you decorate your tree, you'll see how God prepared for Jesus to be born through many generations.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 25:1-13

Of the 10 bridesmaids in the parable, 5 brought enough oil for their lamps for a long wait. The other 5 were not prepared and when their oil ran out, they missed the bridegroom when they went back for more oil. Always be prepared, like the 5 sensible bridesmaids. We never know the day or hour when Christ will return.

Connect the dots – be wise, like the 5 prepared bridesmaids with a full lamp of oil, then color your lamp.
