Gospel Reflection

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Mt. 22: 1-14

A few weeks ago, I and some of our parishioners attended the 9th Annual Gala in support of Catholic Education held at the Baltimore Waterfront Marriott hotel. Our seats at the table were sponsored and given by Conewago, the company which built our new parish complex.

It was quite an evening. The invitations made it clear that it was a “black-tie” event. The men were mostly in tuxedos. The women were all adorned in formal and sparkling, ankle-length dresses. I got off easy. I simply donned my usual black classical shirt and yes, wore a matching suit. My wardrobe was ready-made. It’s what I wear most days, minus the suit.

It might seem unfair that one of the guests invited to the King’s son’s wedding banquet and called in from the street should be manhandled by bouncers and thrown out because he wasn’t dressed appropriately. St. Augustine suggests that the wedding robe required of all guests would have been provided by the King. If, he reasons, this guest refused to wear it, he doubly insulted and dishonored the king and his son.

The invitation to the banquet in today’s parable surely came unexpectedly to those called in from the byroads. When the day comes, at the end of time or the end of my life, my own invitation to the feast may be unanticipated. I may die dressed as I’m dressed every day, but my clerical attire doesn’t guarantee me passage, let alone a seat of honor at the table. The invitation is freely given. I am certainly an unworthy attendee. My only hope for admission is not to look my best but to have done my best at Gospel living. That’s all that the King requires.

~ Fr. Victor Scocco, O.S.S.T.

SPAGHETTI DINNER – OCTOBER 21ST

Next Saturday, October 21st the Trinitarian 3rd Order will have their annual Spaghetti Dinner from 4-7:30pm in the Parish Hall. The cost is $10 per adult, $6 for 6-12 years old (under 6 is free) and includes all you can eat spaghetti, salad, bread, & beverage.

Baked goods will be available for purchase. All proceeds benefit our Sister Parish in Bolivia and the victims of the recent hurricanes.

We would appreciate donations of baked goods and volunteers to help with set-up, clean-up and serving. Please contact Fran Bailey at franbailey2015@gmail.com if you are able to volunteer your assistance for these great causes.

Saving Lives... Transforming Communities... Renewing Hope

FOOD FOR THE POOR

On the weekend of October 28th, please welcome Rev. Joseph M. Monahan, T.O.R. who will speak about Food for the Poor and ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Father Monahan will share personal witness about Food for the Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

SEW HOPEFUL – OCTOBER 28TH – 29TH

Sew Hopeful will be creating pajama pants for children affected by the recent hurricanes. From toddlers to teens!

We will gather on October 28th and 29th, beginning at 9 am. Lunch and dinner will be provided on Saturday and lunch also on Sunday. We are in need of light weight cotton and cotton flannel. We would be very happy to include ready-made t-shirts (any child or youth size) to go with the pants. We need those who have sewing skills, are eager to cut fabric and elastic, and those who can help with pressing the seams as we prepare them. We would also be delighted to have help with hospitality, preparing and serving our meals.

We encourage youth under 18 to help, however, they'll need to be accompanied by a parent.

SILVER ROSE PRAYER SERVICE

Each year, a Silver Rose honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas, is carried by the Knights of Columbus from Canada, through the United States and into Mexico to arrive at the Basilica in Monterrey, Mexico on December 12th, Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

This year the Silver Rose will visit St. Lawrence Church at 7:00pm on Monday, October 16th. All parishioners are invited to gather with the Knights of Columbus at our Church for the Silver Rose Prayer Service honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe, and reaffirming our commitment to the sanctity of human life.

ORDINARY TIME

STUDY: Divine Mercy in the Second Greatest Story Ever Told: Episode 2:

Behold This Heart God's School of Trust, which began in the Old Testament, continued through Christ's work in the New Testament. Unfortunately, humanity's distorted image of God has remained a problem throughout Church history. But God doesn't give up on us. In fact, he brings us back to his School of Trust in the revelation of his Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary, the merciful moral theology of St. Alphonsus de Liguori, and the Little Way of St. Thérèse of Lisieux.

WATCH: Popieluszko

The stirring, powerful true story of Blessed Jerzy Popieluszko, the courageous young priest and martyr who became the chaplain and spiritual leader of the large trade union in Poland, called Solidarity, in the 1980s. At thirty-seven years old, Fr. Popieluszko was brutally murdered by Communist agents for his outspoken defense of his people and for proclaiming the teachings of the Church on human rights and the dignity of the human person.

Go to Movies: Men and Women of Faith

LISTEN: Right Here Right Now

It's profound to consider what hangs in the balance when we share our faith with others. Patrick Madrid, in his highly engaging manner, speaks from a lifetime of experience to help Catholics effectively share the truth about Christ and his Church whenever the opportunity arises.

READ: Four Witnesses:

The Early Church in Her Own Words Four ancient Christian writers, four witnesses to early Christianity left us an extensive body of documentation on this vital subject, and this book brings their fascinating testimony to life for modern believers. With all the power and drama of a gripping novel, this book is a journey of discovery of ancient and beautiful truths through the lives of four great saints of the early Church, Clement of Rome, Ignatius of Antioch, Justin Martyr, and Irenaeus of Lyons.

SIT-UATION

Open Doors USA reports that beatings and other forms of harassments against Indian Christians over the first 2 quarters of 2017 (>400) have nearly equaled reported cases from the entirety of 2016. The governing Bharatiya Janata Party is widely seen as the political arm of the umbrella Hindu nationalist group Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) in India. They seek to have India governed under a single religion where non-believers are relegated as second class citizens. The current total through the first half of 2017 is the highest number since India gained its independence.

Thank you to all who came out to our October 13th speaker event on Coptic Christians. Look to the coming weeks for more information on our activities including a late November bake sale supporting our Assyrian Christian students in Iraq and our December vigil where we will have a nationally known guest speaker. God bless you all, and God bless the persecuted.
