CATHOLIC TRIVIA ANSWER

A Note from Fr. John

On the fourth day of July, a quarter of a millennium ago, fifty-six delegates from thirteen colonies inscribed their signatures upon a declaration that it was not only their right but their duty to throw off the shackles of tyrannical government and to secure the independence of the united States of America. We hail the anniversary of a grand experiment, an act of great hope and hubris, that we could dare to establish new government capable of securing – in the words of the declaration – our “Safety and Happiness.” These two hundred and fifty years stand as a monument both to liberty and to travesty. We have beheld the best and the worst capacities of mankind.

The prophet Zechariah announces a king who banishes the horses and chariots of war, riding instead upon a donkey of peacetime. Jesus, who is that king fully realized, beckons: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves” (Mt 11:28-29). In meekness and humility are to be found peace, safety, and happiness. These mysteries are revealed to the little ones. Though elegies of valiant military strategists and visionary statesmen may fill the pages of history books, yet the true leaven of history are the ones known only to Him who sees in secret, and who in secret will reward them. Those who make present, in every age, the humble one of Nazareth, the suffering servant who takes upon himself the sin of the other, whose cross breaks the cycle of violence and oppression and inaugurates a new kingdom of righteousness and peace. To us is given a place in that kingdom, and we are truly delegates of a greater hope, signers of a greater declaration.

Happy Birthday, America. Ad multos annos!

Una Nota del Fr. John

Un cuatro de julio, hace un cuarto de milenio, cincuenta y seis delegados de trece colonias pusieron sus firmas en una declaración: que no solo era su derecho, sino su deber, sacudirse las cadenas de un gobierno tiránico y asegurar la independencia de los Estados Unidos de América. Celebramos el aniversario de un gran experimento, un acto de inmensa esperanza y arrogancia, que nos atrevimos a establecer un nuevo gobierno capaz de garantizar — en palabras de la declaración— nuestra «seguridad y felicidad». Estos doscientos cincuenta años se erigen como un monumento tanto a la libertad como a la desilusión; hemos visto lo mejor y lo peor de la condición humana.

El profeta Zacarías anuncia un rey que quita los caballos y carros de guerra para cabalgar, en cambio, sobre un asno propio de tiempos de paz. Jesús, que es la realización de ese rey, nos invita: «Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga y yo les daré alivio. Tomen mi yugo sobre ustedes y aprendan de mí, que soy manso y humilde de corazón, y encontrarán descanso» (Mt 11, 28-29). En la mansedumbre y la humildad se hallan la paz, la seguridad y la felicidad. Estos misterios se revelan a los pequeños. Aunque las páginas de la historia se llenen de elogios a valientes estrategas militares y estadistas visionarios, la levadura de la historia son aquellos conocidos solo por Aquel que ve en lo secreto y que recompensará en lo secreto. Aquellos que hacen presente, en cada época, al humilde de Nazaret, al siervo sufriente que carga con el pecado del otro, cuya cruz rompe el ciclo de violencia y opresión e inaugura un nuevo reino de justicia y paz.

A nosotros se nos concede un lugar en ese reino; somos, en verdad, delegados de una esperanza mayor, firmantes de una declaración más grande.

Feliz cumpleaños, América. ¡Ad multos annos!
