A Note from Fr. John

On September 24, our country celebrated the Beatification of Bishop Fulton Sheen.

The widespread popularity of his radio and television broadcasts, not only among Catholics but also non-Catholics, stands as a witness that the Gospel, preached with love and with unflinching conviction, is attractive. King Herod despised John the Baptist, yet he couldn't help listening to him with fascination. When the truth rings out, it finds the resonant frequency of our hearts.

Here are three thought-provoking quotes from the Blessed:

- "If you do not worship God, you worship something, and nine times out of ten it will be yourself. You have a duty to worship God, not because He will be imperfect and unhappy if you do not, but because you will be imperfect and unhappy."
- "Most of us love a non-self, or something extrinsic and apart from our inner life; but a mother's love during the time she is a flesh-and-blood ciborium is not for a non-self but for one that is her very self, a perfect example of charity and love which hardly perceives a separation. Motherhood then becomes a kind of priesthood. She brings God to man by preparing the flesh in which the soul will be implanted; she brings man to God in offering the child back again to the Creator."
- "All love on this earth involves choice. When, for example, a young man expresses his love to a young woman and asks her to become his wife, he is not just making an affirmation of love; he is also negating his love for anyone else. In that one act by which he chooses her, he rejects all that is not her. There is no other real way in which to prove we love a thing than by choosing it in preference to something else. Word and signs of love may be, and often are, expressions of egotism or passion; but deeds are proofs of love. We can prove we love our Lord only by choosing Him in preference to anything else."

Una Nota del Fr. John

El 24 de septiembre, nuestro país celebró la beatificación del obispo Fulton Sheen.

La popularidad de sus programas de radio y televisión, no solo entre los católicos sino también entre los no católicos, es testimonio de que el Evangelio, predicado con amor y con una convicción inquebrantable, es atractivo. El rey Herodes despreciaba a Juan el Bautista, y sin embargo no podía evitar escucharlo fascinado. Cuando la verdad resuena, encuentra la frecuencia de resonancia de nuestros corazones.

Estas tres citas del Beato me inspiran a la reflexión:

- «Si no adoras a Dios, adorarás alguna otra cosa y, nueve de cada diez veces, serás tú mismo. Tienes el deber de adorar a Dios, no porque Él vaya a ser imperfecto o infeliz si no lo haces, sino porque tú serás imperfecto e infeliz».
- «La mayoría de nosotros amamos a un "no-yo", o algo extrínseco y ajeno a nuestra vida interior; pero el amor de una madre, durante el tiempo en que ella es un ciborio de carne y hueso, no se dirige a un "no-yo", sino a alguien que es su propio ser: un ejemplo perfecto de caridad y amor que apenas percibe separación alguna. La maternidad se convierte entonces en una especie de sacerdocio. Ella acerca a Dios al hombre al preparar la carne en la que se implantará el alma; y acerca al hombre a Dios al ofrecer nuevamente el hijo al Creador».
- «Todo amor en esta tierra implica una elección. Cuando, por ejemplo, un hombre expresa su amor a una mujer y le pide que sea su esposa, no solo está afirmando su amor por ella, sino que también está negando su amor por cualquier otra persona. En ese único acto mediante el cual la elige, rechaza todo lo que no sea ella. No existe otra forma real de demostrar que amamos algo que elegirlo por encima de cualquier otra cosa. Las palabras y los signos de amor pueden ser —y a menudo lo son— expresiones de egoísmo o de pasión; pero los hechos son pruebas de amor. Solo podemos demostrar que amamos a nuestro Señor eligiéndolo a Él por encima de cualquier otra cosa».

Caregiver Support & Understanding

Whether you are caring for a parent, spouse, family member, or friend with chronic illness, this group is for you. ALL caregivers - past, present, or future - are welcome.

Being a caregiver can be rewarding, but it can also be frustrating, demanding, and exhausting.

Talking and sharing with others who “get it” can make a big difference in your caregiving experience.

This group will enable you to network with others, share experiences, as well as learn about resources and tools that may make caregiving easier.

No one should feel alone on this journey. Let’s support each other! Groups are now forming to begin meeting in March.
