Celebrating our Communion with Saints

“How good and pleasant it is when brothers and sisters dwell as one!”— Psalm 133

November begins with two luminous feasts: All Saints Day on the first, and All Souls Day on the second. Throughout this month, we celebrate our friendship with all the saints—those known and unknown, canonized and hidden—who accompany us in the communion of Christ. We rejoice not only in our fellowship with baptized brothers and sisters, but also in our shared journey with fellow truth-seekers from diverse traditions and religions.

Solitary prayer is good and necessary. Yet how deeply we cherish—and need—communal prayer, especially the Sunday Eucharist, which is the heart of our faith and the most exquisite celebration of the communion of saints. Our monthly Intercultural Mass embodies this mystery: a sacrament of love and unity expressed through a rich diversity of cultures and languages. In sharing friendship, building communion, and living solidarity, we fulfill our Christian calling. For Christ came to unite us with God and with one another.

The Church, as the living Body of Christ in every age and place, exists to foster this communion. That is why she engages in peace missions and reconciliation efforts. That is why ecumenism—the Spirit-led movement toward renewal and unity—is an enduring call. That is why we pursue dialogue with Judaism and other religions, seeking mutual understanding and shared witness.

As we honor All Saints and All Souls, we celebrate our communion with the saints in heaven, with the faithful on earth, and with those being purified in purgatory. We pray for one another and rely on one another in our pilgrimage to God. Christ challenges us to deepen our friendship with the poor and the vulnerable through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, for in them we encounter Him most vividly.

The parish is a true “school of communion.” The Eucharist is both gift and task—an ongoing invitation from the Risen Christ, present most wonderfully in this Sacrament. We welcome one another, rejoicing in God’s multihued and multifaceted gifts. Each of us is unique, yet together we approach the same Eucharistic table. We receive the one bread, share the one cup, and become one Body in Christ. This is the miracle of communion, celebrated with gratitude each day.

We are bound, in a marvelous way, to those who have gone before us. To belong to a tradition is to be freed from the confines of our own age. We converse across time—with Augustine and Aquinas, Dante and Teresa of Ávila, Therese of Lisieux and Martin de Porres, Rembrandt and Rouault, Bach and Beethoven, Andrew Kim and Oscar Romero, John Henry Newman and Teilhard de Chardin, Mother Teresa and Dorothy Day. In a world fractured by division and self-made isolation, we proclaim connection and unity. In a culture of self-seeking, we dare to live a self-giving way of life.

The Eucharist is Christ’s total self-gift—the summit and source of Christian living.

Year of Jubilee 2025—Pilgrims of Hope | Año de Jubileo 2025—Peregrinos de Esperanza

What is a Jubilee?: A Jubilee year, also known as a “holy year”, is a special year in the life of the church, which is celebrated every 25 years.

Jubilee Indulgence: Special graces are offered for the forgiveness of temporal punishment due to sin. The faithful can obtain a plenary indulgence (remission of all temporal punishment) by meeting the usual conditions (confession, Holy Communion, prayer for the pope's intentions, and no attachment to sin) and participating in the following: Pilgrimages, Pious visits to sacred places and works of mercy and penance.

¿Qué es un Jubileo?: Un año jubilar, también conocido como "año santo", es un año especial en la vida de la iglesia, que se celebra cada 25 años.

Indulgencia Jubilar: Se ofrecen gracias especiales para el perdón de la pena temporal debida al pecado. Los fieles pueden obtener una indulgencia plenaria (remisión de toda pena temporal) al cumplir con las condiciones habituales (confesión, Santa Comunión, oración por las intenciones del Papa y no apego al pecado) y participar en lo siguiente: peregrinaciones, visitas piadosas a lugares sagrados y obras de misericordia y penitencia.

JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen

ORACION DEL JUBILEO

Padre que estás en el cielo, la fe que nos has donado en tu Hijo Jesucristo, nuestro hermano, y la llama de caridad infundida en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo, despierten en nosotros la bienaventurada Esperanza en la venida de tu Reino.

Tu gracia nos transforme en dedicados cultivadores de las semillas del Evangelio que fermenten la humanidad y el cosmos, en espera confiada de los cielos nuevos y de la tierra nueva, cuando vencidas las fuerzas del mal, se manifestará para siempre tu gloria.

La gracia del Jubileo reavive en nosotros, Peregrinos de Esperanza, el anhelo de los bienes celestiales y derrame en el mundo entero la alegría y la paz de nuestro Redentor. A ti, Dios bendito eternamente, sea la alabanza y la gloria por los siglos. Amén.

Celebrando nuestra Comunión con los Santos

“¡Qué bueno y qué agradable es que los hermanos convivan en unidad!” — Salmo 133

Noviembre comienza con dos festividades luminosas: el Día de Todos los Santos, la primera, y el Día de los Fieles Difuntos, la segunda. A lo largo de este mes, celebramos nuestra amistad con todos los santos — conocidos y desconocidos, canonizados y ocultos— que nos acompañan en la comunión con Cristo. Nos alegramos no solo de nuestra comunión con los hermanos y hermanas bautizados, sino también de nuestro caminar compartido con compañeros buscadores de la verdad de diversas tradiciones y religiones.

La oración en solitario es buena y necesaria. Sin embargo, ¡cuánto apreciamos y necesitamos la oración comunitaria, especialmente la Eucaristía dominical, que es el corazón de nuestra fe y la celebración más exquisita de la comunión de los santos! Nuestra Misa Intercultural mensual encarna este misterio: un sacramento de amor y unidad expresado a través de una rica diversidad de culturas e idiomas. Al compartir la amistad, construir la comunión y vivir la solidaridad, cumplimos nuestra vocación cristiana. Porque Cristo vino para unirnos con Dios y entre nosotros.

La Iglesia, como Cuerpo vivo de Cristo en todo tiempo y lugar, existe para fomentar esta comunión. Por eso se involucra en misiones de paz y esfuerzos de reconciliación. Por eso el ecumenismo —el movimiento guiado por el Espíritu hacia la renovación y la unidad— es un llamado constante. Por eso buscamos el diálogo con el judaísmo y otras religiones, buscando la comprensión mutua y el testimonio compartido.

Al honrar a Todos los Santos y a los Fieles Difuntos, celebramos nuestra comunión con los santos en el cielo, con los fieles en la tierra y con los que se purifican en el purgatorio. Oramos unos por otros y nos apoyamos mutuamente en nuestra peregrinación hacia Dios. Cristo nos reta a profundizar nuestra amistad con los pobres y vulnerables a través de las obras de misericordia corporales y espirituales, porque en ellas lo encontramos más vívidamente.

La parroquia es una verdadera "escuela de comunión". La Eucaristía es a la vez don y tarea: una invitación constante de Cristo Resucitado, presente de forma maravillosa en este Sacramento. Nos acogemos mutuamente, regocijándonos en los dones multifacéticos de Dios. Cada uno de nosotros es único, pero juntos nos acercamos a la misma mesa eucarística. Recibimos el único pan, compartimos el único cáliz y nos convertimos en un solo Cuerpo en Cristo. Este es el milagro de la comunión, celebrado con gratitud cada día.

Estamos unidos, de una manera maravillosa, a quienes nos precedieron. Pertenecer a una tradición es liberarse de las ataduras de nuestra propia época. Conversamos a través del tiempo: con Agustín y Tomás de Aquino, Dante y Teresa de Ávila, Teresa de Lisieux y Martín de Porres, Rembrandt y Rouault, Bach y Beethoven, Andrew Kim y Oscar Romero, John Henry Newman y Teilhard de Chardin, Madre Teresa y Dorothy Day. En un mundo fracturado por la división y el aislamiento autoinfligido, proclamamos la conexión y la unidad. En una cultura del egoísmo, nos atrevemos a vivir una vida de entrega.

La Eucaristía es la donación total de Cristo: cumbre y fuente de la vida cristiana.

Pd. Paul D. Lee, S.T.D.
