FROM THE PASTORS DESK

What You Thought Would Destroy You Ultimately Saved You.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Anthony's,

Let me start this bulletin article with a quote from the Apostle of the Gentiles, otherwise known as St. Paul: "I have been crucified with Christ, the life I live is not my own, it is Christ living in me. I still live my human life, but it is a life of faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Galatians 2:19)

Here St. Paul speaks of giving up his own life to live a life centered on Jesus Christ. This is the basic call of the Christian, but it is a lifelong task. Paul harkens back the life of Jesus Christ who died on the cross on Calvary only to rise from the dead.

Sometimes in life when we have to do things we really don't like, we think foolishly "it's the end of my life." No more joy, happiness or fun; but the very opposite is true. This brings me to the reason of my bulletin article. After having been at this parish for 11 years and hearing countless confessions, I know that many families struggle with addiction of one type or another. Here is some good advice taken out of the "Big Book" of Alcoholics Anonymous; Chapter 5, "How it Works." Here are the steps we took, which are suggested as a program of recovery:

1. We admitted we were powerless over alcohol and that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. Came to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. Continue to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, only for knowledge of his will for us and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening, as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Peace, In Christ Jesus, Fr. Stack

P.S. God and these principles, along with lots of grace saved my life.

As we wrap up Respect Life Month this week, it's important to recognize the human dignity of every person all year long! As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning to their end of their lives, and every point in between.
