"A Roped Guide"

The Ascension of Jesus into heaven acquaints us with this deeply consoling reality on our journey: In Christ, true God and true man, our humanity was taken to God. Christ opens the path to us. He is like a roped guide climbing a mountain who, on reaching the summit, pulls us up to him and leads us to God. If we entrust our life to him, if we let ourselves be guided by him, we are certain to be in safe hands, in the hands of the Savior, of our Advocate.
--Pope Francis

This day we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, we hear ways in which Jesus is calling us to follow his path and example. There are always people on our path that are examples for us to be guided and make that part of who we are.

We are faced with many challenges right now and I'm sure we can stand up to them. Looking at the news day in and day out, we see how people adapt and how people push their luck with trying alternatives. The people in charge of our state and the people in charge of our diocese are looking out for our best interest. We have been marking off pews and measuring distances for safe use when we re-open. We may not be able to get 200 people in at a time but some may want to stay home. When I get the plan all set, I'll send a letter to all of you. God bless and stay safe. (Happy Memorial Day Weekend!)

Stewardship Prayer
7th Sunday of Easter ~
The Ascension of the Lord

"I am praying for them..."
John 17:9

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Pray in good times and in bad. Prayer is always the first and best option in any situation, not just the last resort. Pray for friends and family and for those that don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you.

The Resource and Referral Help Line is a toll-free phone number, 1-888-26VITALity (1-888-268-4825), which is available 24/7, and provides information on programs and services within a parish or community to address pertinent issues related to aging and disability. Callers are connected to the resources they need to provide appropriate care and support. Live email chats also provide additional access and a means to connect with the VITALity staff.

You can rest assured that we will be taking all the necessary precautions to keep your children safe at SVDPRS.

God bless you and have a great week!

Nancy Dixon, Advancement Director

Dear Parishioners,

It's been two months since we have posted here in the church bulletin. We hope and pray that this finds our SVDP families well!

Our teachers have done a remarkable job transitioning from the classroom to online teaching. They've had many challenges to overcome, but are so dedicated to our students, they have risen to the occasion as so many teachers throughout the world have done! We are grateful for our wonderful teachers.

If you are on Facebook, then you know that our principal, Miss Linda Pirolli, was named the Principal of the Year for the Diocese of Camden. We had several plans to celebrate this honor which were foiled by the Covid-19 situation. We are all so happy for her to be honored; it is a well-deserved award. She has been teaching in the diocese for over 40 years and has been our beloved principal here as St. Vincent's for nearly 25 of them! Congratulations, Miss P!

We have been conducting honors and awards via Zoom Meetings online. Here are our 3rd quarter winners of the “What Would Jesus Do?” award:

Jessa Perna (PK3), Owen McGehean (PK4), Liam Lipana (K), Tabitha Taylor (1), Daniella LeRose (2), Ben Mattos (3), Jonathan Abbruscato (4), Angela LeRose (5), Sophia Cappuccio (6), Abby D'Arcangelo (7), and Riley Kott (8).

Lastly, we are enrolling new students for the fall PreK3 through 8th grades. We are offering Tuition Transfer Grants in the amount of $1,500 for any family transferring children in grades 1-7 from public school or who are being homeschooled. Please call the school at 609-625-1565 and leave your name and number, complete a contact form on our website at www.svdprs.com or email me at dixon@svdprs.com.
