Something from the Pastor

“And therefore, we also having so great a cloud of witnesses over our head, laying aside every weight and sin which surrounds us, let us run by patience to the fight proposed to us” (Hebrews 12:1).

Who is the “cloud of witnesses”? The cloud is made up of the Saints, those men and women who followed Jesus unreservedly. Those men and women who cooperated with the grace of Christ, sharing now in the life of the Most Holy Trinity. In both the Old and the New Testaments, the cloud is a sign of God’s presence. Hebrews describes the Saints as being part of the cloud.

Hebrews presents the Saints as examples to follow as we run toward the fight. The fight is not a physical battle. Rather, it is the struggle that the baptize undertake daily when they strive to live as a disciple of Christ in the midst of the world.

As we commemorate All Saints Day, recall that recently two citizens of the USA were recently beatified: Archbishop Fulton Sheen and Father Stanley Rother. These are added to the list of Blessed: Michael Joseph McGivney, Solanus Casey, Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, Francis Xavier Seelos, James Alfred Mill and Carlos Manuel Rodriguez Santiago.

One day, it is hoped these will be added to the list of American Saints: St John Neumann, St. Katherine Drexel, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. Junipero Serra, St. Damien de Veuster, St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, St. Mother Theodore Geurin, and the North American Martyrs (Rene Goupil, Isaac Jogues, John de Lalande and Companions).

Keep in mind that Saints John Neumann and Katherine Drexel lived in Philadelphia and would have had some familiarity with South Jersey.

I invite all of us to get to know these saints that walked in our country. May they become examples for us to live as disciples of Christ in our day, bringing the glory of the Gospel into each place and situation in which we find ourselves.

All holy men and women, Saints of God, pray for us.

Suggestions for this week:

1. How to Advent | Episode 1. Advent is only a few weeks away. Can you believe it? Join us over the next few weeks as we prepare for this season with "How to Advent."

<https://app.formed.org/app/videos/3851306/>

2. The Story of Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 1. Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or is it something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead.

<https://app.formed.org/app/videos/2414298/>

3. Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd. As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

November 2: The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed.

November 3: St. Martin de Porres, pray for us.

November 4: St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us.

The Pope's prayer intention for the month of November is for the proper use of wealth. Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.
