The Lectionary for Mass

Advent Gospels

On the four Sundays of Advent, the Catholic lectionary presents a series of Gospel readings that prepare for the celebration of the Birth of Christ. The Sunday Advent readings all rotate on a three-year cycle, but they always follow the same pattern.

The Gospel for the First Sunday of Advent always tells of the reign of Christ at the end of time. It echoes the theme of the previous Sunday, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Advent starts with the message that we await the Second Coming of Christ. This entire season is not just a reminder of a past birth, but also an anticipation of future glory.

The Second and Third Sundays of Advent always have Gospel readings about John the Baptist. John the Baptist is an adult in these passages, proclaiming the nearness of the Kingdom of God and serving as the prophet who bridges the Old and New Testaments. John foreshadows Jesus in his birth, his preaching, and his death. John's message on these two middle Sundays of this season inspires us to follow Christ.

The Fourth Sunday of Advent always tells part of the story that just precedes the Birth of Christ. These familiar episodes set the stage for one of the Bible's best-known passages, the story of Christmas.

The Gospel readings of the four Sundays of Advent come to us in reverse chronology. We start with the end of time. We continue to the period when Jesus was an adult. We end in the days before his birth. Like a funnel, Advent opens with a giant theme, the grandness of Christ the King, and it ends with a specific one, the child lying in a Bethlehem manger.

Although Paul was wrong about how quickly Christ would return, these letters remind us to behave our best at all times – as though the end is near.

El Leccionario para la Misa

Evangelios de Adviento

Durante los cuatro domingos de Adviento, el leccionario católico presenta una serie de lecturas del Evangelio que preparan para la celebración del Nacimiento de Cristo. Las lecturas dominicales de Adviento se repiten en un ciclo de tres años, pero siempre siguen el mismo patrón.

El Evangelio del Primer Domingo de Adviento siempre narra el reinado de Cristo al final de los tiempos. Se hace eco del tema del domingo anterior, la Solemnidad de Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. El Adviento comienza con el mensaje de que esperamos la Segunda Venida de Cristo. Este tiempo litúrgico no es solo un recordatorio de un nacimiento pasado, sino también una anticipación de la gloria futura.

Los Evangelios del Segundo y Tercer Domingo de Adviento siempre tratan sobre Juan el Bautista. En estos pasajes, Juan el Bautista aparece como un adulto, proclamando la cercanía del Reino de Dios y sirviendo como el profeta que une el Antiguo y el Nuevo Testamento. Juan prefigura a Jesús en su nacimiento, su predicación y su muerte. El mensaje de Juan en estos dos domingos intermedios de este tiempo litúrgico nos inspira a seguir a Cristo.

El cuarto domingo de Adviento siempre cuenta parte de la historia que precede al nacimiento de Cristo. Estos familiares episodios establecen el escenario para uno de los pasajes más conocidos de la Biblia, la historia de la Navidad.

Las lecturas del Evangelio de los cuatro domingos de Adviento vienen a nosotros en cronología inversa. Empezamos con el fin de los tiempos. Continuamos hasta el período en que Jesús era un adulto. Terminamos en los días antes de su nacimiento. Como un embudo, el Adviento se abre con un tema gigante, la grandeza de Cristo el Rey, y termina con uno específico, el niño yacido en un pesebre de Belén.

Aunque Pablo se equivocó acerca de lo rápido que Cristo volvería, estas cartas nos recuerdan a comportarnos lo mejor en todo momento – como si el fin estuviera cerca.
