Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

We find that it is especially helpful to have retraining/refreshers every now and then. Thus, we have two sessions planned for our English Ministers – June 30 and July 14, both at 7 PM in Holy Angels St. Gabriel Room. Attendance at one of these sessions is mandatory. Attendance will be taken at each class. If you cannot attend either session, please email Deacon Dave, dfeaster@holyangels.net. Please realize that this is very important and we will not be able to keep scheduling those who do not attend a session.

Gestures, Postures and Practices of the Liturgy....

Eucharistic Prayer Choice

The Eucharistic Prayers used at Mass are in four categories. The first group, simply numbered one through four, contains the principal prayers for Mass throughout the liturgical year.

A second group is used in Masses for Reconciliation. The two prayers of this group were originally composed for the Holy Year 1975, when Paul VI was Pope, but they have been approved for general use, especially in penitential seasons and days when the Scriptures invite us to reconcile.

A third group is for use in Masses for Various Needs and Occasions. Masses may be offered for a variety of intentions, such as the church, society, weather and family. There are four variations of the Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, each with its own preface and intercessions.

The final group is for Masses with Children. These three prayers were originally composed with specific age groups in mind, but they are used interchangeably now for any group of preadolescents. These Eucharistic Prayers are still lengthy, but they aim to engage children through a simplified vocabulary and the singing of additional acclamations. These prayers were not included in the revision of the third edition of The Roman Missal, but they were updated to match the language of the Missal and printed in a separate volume.

Of the first group, Eucharistic Prayer I is recommended on Sundays, solemnities and feast of the saints mentioned in the prayer. It is also called the Roman Canon, and it was the only Eucharistic Prayer used in the Roman Rite for many centuries. Prayer II is based on a text from the third or fourth century. It is shorter and recommended for weekdays. Prayer III, newly composed after the Second Vatican Council, is especially fitting for Sundays and feasts. Prayer IV, which tells about salvation history, is especially suited for weekdays and Sundays in Ordinary Time. Its preface never varies.

Gestos, posturas y prácticas de la liturgia....

Elección de la Plegaria Eucarística

Las Plegarias Eucarísticas utilizadas en la Misa se dividen en cuatro categorías. El primer grupo, numerado simplemente del uno al cuatro, contiene las plegarias principales para la Misa a lo largo del año litúrgico.

Un segundo grupo se utiliza en las Misas para la Reconciliación. Las dos plegarias de este grupo fueron compuestas originalmente para el Año Santo de 1975, durante el pontificado de Pablo VI, pero han sido aprobadas para su uso general, especialmente en los tiempos penitenciales y en aquellos días en que las Escrituras nos invitan a la reconciliación.

Un tercer grupo está destinado a las Misas por diversas necesidades y ocasiones. Las Misas pueden celebrarse por una variedad de intenciones, tales como la Iglesia, la sociedad, las condiciones meteorológicas y la familia. Existen cuatro variantes de la Plegaria Eucarística para las Misas por diversas necesidades y ocasiones, cada una con su propio prefacio e intercesiones.

El último grupo corresponde a las Misas con niños. Estas tres plegarias fueron compuestas originalmente pensando en grupos de edad específicos, pero actualmente se utilizan indistintamente para cualquier grupo de preadolescentes. Aunque estas Plegarias Eucarísticas siguen siendo extensas, buscan captar la atención de los niños mediante un vocabulario simplificado y el canto de aclamaciones adicionales. Estas plegarias no se incluyeron en la revisión de la tercera edición del Misal Romano, pero fueron actualizadas para armonizar con el lenguaje del Misal e impresas en un volumen separado.

Dentro del primer grupo, se recomienda la Plegaria Eucarística I para los domingos, las solemnidades y las fiestas de los santos mencionados en la misma. También se la conoce como Canon Romano, y fue la única Plegaria Eucarística utilizada en el Rito Romano durante muchos siglos. La Plegaria II se basa en un texto del siglo III o IV; es más breve y se recomienda para los días de diario. La Plegaria III, compuesta tras el Concilio Vaticano II, resulta especialmente apropiada para los domingos y las fiestas. La Plegaria IV, que narra la historia de la salvación, es especialmente adecuada para los días de diario y los domingos del Tiempo Ordinario; su prefacio es invariable.
