Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 20, 2024

“Rather whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for the many... ‘Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.’”

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Isaiah speaks of how the Servant of God will have to give his life up for the sins of other people. Because of this suffering the Servant will receive eternal life for himself and all the people whose sins are forgiven because of him.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is considered to be the new high priest and mediator between God and his people. Fortunately, Jesus has experienced the same temptations as other people, and so he has more tolerance of our weaknesses.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Two of the disciples ask Jesus that they be allowed to sit at his right and left side when he comes into his glory. Jesus explains that they should not be concerned with their position. Instead they should concern themselves with serving others just as Jesus was planning to serve many in giving his own life for their sins.

“Al contrario, el que quiera ser grande, que se haga servidor de ustedes; y el que quiera ser el primero que se haga su siervo: como el Hijo del hombre, que no vino para ser servido, sino para servir y dar su vida en rescate de muchos... ‘Maestro, queremos que nos concedas lo que te vamos a pedir.’”

Primera Lectura: Isaías 53:10-11

Isaías habla de cómo el Siervo de Dios tendrá que ofrecer su vida por los pecados de otros. Debido a su sufrimiento el Siervo recibirá vida eterna para El y toda la gente cuyos pecados han sido perdonados por El.

Segunda Lectura: Hebreos 4:14-16

Se considera a Jesús el nuevo gran sacerdote y mediador entre Dios y su pueblo. Afortunadamente, Jesús ha experimentado las mismas tentaciones que otra gente, y por ello tiene más tolerancia a nuestras debilidades.

Evangelio: San Marcos 10:35-45

Dos de los discípulos piden a Jesús que les permita sentarse uno a su derecha y el otro a su izquierda cuando lleguen a su gloria. Jesús explica que no deben preocuparse de la posición. En vez deberían preocuparse en servir el uno al otro como Jesús planeaba servir a muchos al ofrecer su propia vida por los pecados de la gente.

Prayer For Priestly Vocations

Almighty and Eternal God, in Your unfailing love You provide ministers for Your Church. We pray that more men may hear Your call to serve the Church of Metuchen as priests. Inspire in them a generous response. Grant them courage and vision to serve Your people. May their lives and service as Men of the Eucharist call Your people to respond to the presence of Jesus Christ so that we may all be reconciled to God, announce glad tidings to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives, set prisoners free and renew the face of the earth. Amen.

Evangelization Workshop

The U.S. Bishops have dedicated the third and final year of the Eucharistic Revival the Year of Mission and have encouraged the faithful to participate in the Walk With One initiative. To aid us in this mission, the Diocese of Metuchen is hosting an evangelization workshop for all parishioners. This workshop is among the most hands-on, practical, and dynamic presentations on evangelization available for Catholics today. Through a series of presentations, small groups, and exercises, you will gain the courage you need to be an enthusiastic and joyful evangelist in the circumstances of your everyday life and in Christian ministry.

 Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Mark 10:35-45

When James and John ask Jesus if they can be seated with Him in Heaven, they are told only God decides this. To gain a place in Heaven Jesus tells the twelve, they must be servants to others, not expect to be served.
