FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners

Finding ourselves in nearly mid-point through the summer, I hope everyone is taking some time for vacation. The word vacation comes from the Latin verb "vacare" which means to be empty, free, or at leisure. The late Pope Benedict reminded us that vacations are not only a time for physical rest but also for spiritual enrichment through extended moments of prayer and meditation in order to grow in one's personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

" Every good Christian knows that vacations are an opportune time to stretch one's body and to nourish the spirit in more ample spaces of prayer and meditation, to grow in one's personal relationship with Christ, and to conform more and more to his teachings," the Pope said

Even if we cannot get away, it would still be important to make some time away from our usual routine to rest and reflect. Pope Francis echoed the good advice of his predecessor: "Let us learn how to take a break, to turn off the mobile phone, ...to regenerate ourselves in dialogue with God"

With affection,

Msgr. Gervasio

SUPPORT THE SUMMER PROJECT

Our annual Summer Project is again underway. Registered parishioners should have received a brochure and offering envelope. (If you have not yet received one, please call the parish office at 609-587-4372 and ask for one.)

Please review the information and support the work we hope to undertake this summer to maintain and upgrade our church campuses and make them even safer.

You have always made a generous response to this summer appeal. The appeal will run through September 1. We are most grateful for your support, especially when increasing inflation has impacted every household.

MESAJ KI SOTI NAN BIWO KIRE-A

Pawasyen yo,

.Nou preske rive nan mitan été a e mwen espere tout moun pran tan pou yo ale nan vakans. Mo « vakans » lan soti nan yon vèb laten « vacare » ki vle di “vid” ou byen “lwazi”. Pap Benwa fè nou sonje ke vakans pa sèlman yon tan repo fizik, men tou se yon tan pou nou anrichi nou esprityèlman gras a moman kote nou ap plonje nan lapriyè ak meditasyon, dekwa pou nou ka grandi nan relasyon pèsònèl nou avèk JeziKri.

Pap la di : « Tout bon kretyen konnen vakans se moman ki opòten pou detire kò a e nourri lepri a nan epas kote li pi fasil pou lapriyè e medite, dekwa pou w grandi nan relasyon pèsònèl ou a Kris la e pou ou ka konfòme w ak ansèyman li yo. »

Menm si nou pa ka pati, li ta enpòtan pou nou pran tan, pou nou rete lwen bagay nou konn abitye fè pou nou ka repoze e reflechi. Pap Franswa reprann tout bon konsèy predesèsè li a : « Ann nou aprann fè yon poz, fèmen telefòn lan, ...pou nou ka rejenere nan dyalòg ak Bondye. »

Avèk afeksyon,

Msgr Gervasio

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

In the final weeks of the revival, we are providing descriptions of the various parts of the Holy Mass.

THE COMMUNION RITE

Invited by the priest, all recite or sing the Lord's Prayer, an excellent transition to the Communion Rite. It's mention of our "daily bread" turns our minds and hearts to the Eucharist. The priest extends the final petition of the prayer: "Deliver us Lord from every evil..." The people respond with the doxology, "For the kingdom, the power..." The plea for forgiveness in the Lord's Prayer, leads to the prayer from peace and an invitation to exchange a sign of peace (strictly optional) It is a reminder that we should be one with each other before approaching the altar for Holy Communion.

After the exchange of peace, the people say or sing the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) This triple invocation became part of the Roman Liturgy in the 7th century. It evokes the title given to Jesus by St. John the Baptist; a title found in the Scripture over 30 times. Jesus is the lamb sacrificed for our sins. During the Agnus Dei, the priest breaks the host and silently places a particle in the precious blood. It is an ancient custom that was meant to signify the unity with the Pope and the local bishop. In the early Church, the Pope at his Mass, broke off several particles of the host and sent them to several churches. The priests in these places would drop them into their own chalices. It was a gesture of unity.

SUMMERTIME REMINDER

Clothes say something about what we think, what we value. They also influence how we behave and feel. That our culture has become so casual about everything says something about us. I cannot exactly articulate it but it seems to say, "Nothing is really all that important." But that is not true. Going to God's house IS important. Being ministered to by the King of Kings and Lord of Lords is astounding. Casual attire in these circumstances is simply inappropriate if we really think about what we are doing, where we are going and who it is we will meet . . . Sunday is special; God's House is special. Some things really are important and our clothing and demeanor ought to reflect this truth.....Msgr. Charles Pope, Washington DC

The World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly

The IV World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly will be celebrated on Sunday, 28 July 2024. The theme chosen by the Holy Father – “Do not cast me off in my old age” (cf. Psalm 71:9) – is meant to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly persons, so often the victims of the throw-away culture. In this year of preparation for the Jubilee, which the Holy Father wishes to be devoted to prayer, the theme of the World Day is taken from Psalm 71, the plea of an elderly person who reflects on the story of his friendship with God.

By cherishing the charisms of grandparents and the elderly, and the contribution they make to the life of the Church, the World Day seeks to support the efforts of every ecclesial community to forge bonds between the generations and to combat loneliness, in the awareness that – as Scripture states – “It is not good for man to be alone” (Gen 2:18).

– The Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life

PRAYER FOR WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY 2024

Lord, faithful God,

You who created us in Your image, You who never leaves us alone and who accompanies us through every season of life, do not abandon us, take care of us, and grant us, once again, the ability to discover ourselves and recognize that we are Your children. Renew our hearts with your Word and do not allow anyone to be cast aside.

May your Spirit of love fill us with Your tenderness and teach us to say: “I will not abandon you!” to those we meet on our journey. With the help of your beloved Son, may we not lose the taste for fraternity and may we not conform to the sadness of loneliness. Help us to look to the future with renewed hope and make the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly a day without loneliness, and a day abundant with the first fruits of Your peace. Amen.
