

THE PARISH COMMUNITY OF SAINT CHARLES BORROMEO

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish community of Saint Charles Borromeo, are called by our Baptism to share the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ to love God and one another.

We respond to this call by deepening our faith through active participation in the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and by sharing our time, talent and treasure to serve and care for others within and outside our parish community.

We envision ourselves as belonging to a people of faith, hope and love as we are led by the Holy Spirit in celebrating the Kingdom of God.

Letter from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we approach the end of October, all of attention is paid to the cultural phenomenon that is Halloween. Decorating the house, getting costumes ready, enjoying some candy, attending Trunk or Treats, and many other things are all part of the Halloween experience. And despite its more religious origins, today's version of it is very much its own thing. However, I'd like to highlight something that is happening just after the holiday that is more faith related in my letter this week.

This year, with the way the calendar falls, there's a little bit of a change that will occur. As most of us know, November 1st is the day in which the Church celebrates All Saint's Day. This solemnity, which is a chance to consider and rejoice with all the saints in heaven, includes both the universally recognized ones as well as the personal saints within families and our parish community. It is also so important of a celebration that it is typically a Holy Day of Obligation, meaning there is an expectation for all the faithful to attend Mass that day.

Following All Saint's Day, the Church commemorates All Soul's Day; an opportunity to recall our loved ones who have passed from this world and to pray for the souls of the faithful departed and all those in Purgatory. While there's no obligation to attend Mass typically on November 2nd, meaning it doesn't quite rank as high as All Saint's Day, it's still an important and worthwhile thing to recall the spiritual good that is praying for the deceased, which has been done in the life of the Church since very early on. This year, however, there's been a slight flip in how the celebration of these two days comes to us.

Given that November 1st is a Saturday and November 2nd is a Sunday, the normal celebration of these two days have a slight variation to them. I apologize if this seems a bit wonky, but it just happens to be how things unfold for us this year. When a Holy Day of Obligation falls on a Saturday in the US, the Conference of Bishops ordinarily lift the obligation to attend Mass, with the understanding that it's challenging and burdensome to require families to come to church two days in a row like that. Likewise, liturgically, when a Feast Day falls on a Sunday, provided it's not during Advent or Lent, then the Sunday celebration is replaced by the Feast instead. Bear with the mumbo-jumbo here, I'm about to explain what that all means.

And so, for the following weekend, All Saint's Day is not a Holy Day of Obligation and there will not be any additional Masses offered because of it. And for all the weekend Masses, we will be celebrating All Soul's Day, since it will be replacing the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time. I apologize for any confusion, but I hope this provides some explanation!

Peace and Goodness,
Fr. Dan

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

“To rediscover and make others rediscover the inviolable dignity of every human person makes up an essential task, in a certain sense, the central and unifying task of the service which the church, and the lay faithful in her, are called to render to the human family.”

WEEKDAY COMMUNION ANTIPHONS

Monday: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Tuesday: Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him.

Wednesday: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Thursday: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Friday Entrance: The designs of his Heart are from age to age, to rescue their souls from death and to keep them alive in famine.

Friday: Thus says the Lord: Let whoever is thirsty come to me and drink. Streams of living water will flow from within the one who believes in me.

In this Sunday's Gospel, the tax collector's prayer allows God to be God and so allows God to pour mercy into his heart. When we pray and give alms to the poor, we allow God's mercy to be poured into their hearts.

In the month of October, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring God's love and mercy and assist families by providing food, and help with utility and rent bills. Thank You.

You are cordially invited to join an evening of Spirituality & Recommitment tomorrow at 7pm in Church. Hope to see you there.

TRANSPORTATION MINISTRY

Are you in need of transportation to a doctor, pharmacy, or another need? Please call 856-829-0935 and leave a message, either for the ride you need, or the help you can provide to mass each week. We will return your call as soon as possible.

All members of our ministries and organizations are invited to attend.

Please contact your ministry coordinator or leaders and let them know if you will be attending.
