OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE
NOVEMBER 24, 2024

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me.

What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

SIENA ACADEMY

"Embracing the Struggle"

The child is born in love with the struggle. Picture a two-year-old attempting to put on socks by himself. This can be a monumental task for a small child, but do we embrace this struggle or swoop in to help? We may not feel comfortable seeing our child struggle, but it is a necessary part of development.

Maria Montessori said "Any unnecessary aid given to the child arrests his development." These are strong and important words for adults. The "struggle" is a crucial element for life-long learning. Persevering through challenges and staying on task gives the child a sense of accomplishment and self-confidence.

Perhaps we need to reflect on our own attitude when our children struggle, or when they are uncomfortable with tasks that are not always enjoyable. Do we take over and "rescue" our child, just to "keep the peace"? Naturally, parents want to protect their children from discomfort, but these moments are crucial and will affect the way the child views the world into adulthood. We should give just enough help and support so that the child can accomplish the task for himself. Let's not rob our children of the joy of accomplishment by embracing their struggle.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

stcatherinesreoffice@gmail.com

703.759.353

DRE – Father Jerry Pokorsky,
Assisted by Greg Meehan

Our goal is to have our children realize being Catholic is a way of life and not just another subject to learn. This spiritual journey involves a head to heart understanding of what it means to make a Christian difference in this world. Parents teach by their word and example as the primary educators in the Domestic Church. St. Catherine's supports our families by providing quality religious education in a faith-filled environment. Through the cooperative effort of parents, the catechetical program, our parish family, and the students themselves, our children will grow in their love for God and knowledge of their Catholic faith, develop their God-given gifts and talents, and be authentic and effective disciples of Christ in this world. Please check the parish website for the cluster schedules for when your child comes to meet in person with their class. Please check the parish website for all sacramental preparation requirements and deadlines as well as CCD scheduling of Cluster Meetings for those children who are enrolled in the CCD program.
