Sunday Readings

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses explains to the people that a prophet will come from among them, and that they should listen to this prophet's words, for God has told him of this prophet. God also tells Moses that anyone who pretends to speak in his words, or speaks in the name of other gods shall die.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Paul tells the Corinthians how an unmarried man or woman is able to devote themselves fully to God without concern for the needs of a spouse. Paul explains that God wants to help them promote good and devote themselves more fully to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

As Jesus was teaching, a man with an unclean spirit came to the synagogue and asked if Jesus had come to destroy them. Jesus ordered the spirit out of the man, who shrieked violently as the spirit departed. The people were amazed at the authority he had over the spirit.

Church in Latin America

This weekend we will accept donations for the Church in Latin America in the boxes at all exits. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your donations make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Catholic Herald/Capital Improvements

The second collection next weekend is for the Catholic Herald the official news source for the Diocese of Arlington and Capital Improvements. If you would like to contribute to the Herald please put your contributions in the envelope provided in your mailing or mark an envelope/check for the Herald. All loose money will be counted toward the Capital Campaign. If you do not receive the Herald and would like to please contact the parish office at (540)-659-1102.
