Sunday Readings

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 22-33

After the Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles, Peter preaches with great enthusiasm to both Jews and Christians. He recalls for them in vivid terms the miracles and wonders that Jesus performed.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-21

Peter makes reference to the Passover, when the Jews escaped from Egypt because the blood of the paschal lamb was shed. Now they are being saved from sin by the blood of Christ, the Lamb of the New Testament.

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

Jesus reveals Himself to two disciples on the way to Emmaus. After explaining to them the passages in Scripture which referred to Him, Christ "took bread, broke it, and distributed it to them." Then they recognized Christ and their "hearts burned within them."

We are delighted to share the success of our recent Literary Fair, where 4th–8th grade students participated with enthusiasm and creativity. The event showcased a wide variety of books across genres and reading levels—from imaginative fantasy and historical fiction to thought-provoking nonfiction and timeless classics.

Students brought their books to life through creative displays, demonstrating both their critical thinking skills and their love of reading. It was truly inspiring to see their unique interpretations on display.

Our faculty judges were also joined by student judges from John Paul the Great High School.
THANK YOU!

The former tax collector Matthew wrote one of the Gospels in the Bible. We learned in two other Gospels (Mark and Luke) that Matthew was not his original name, much like Peter's original name was Simon. What was Matthew's original name?
