From the Parish Office

Parish Office Schedule Change & Adoration Chapel, Easter Monday

The Parish Office will be closed on April 22nd in observance of Easter.

The Adoration Chapel will reopen that morning following the 8:30 am Mass.

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 28th & Vigil, April 27th

Our clergy will lead the Divine Mercy Chaplet before all the Masses at the Vigil and on Divine Mercy Sunday, and our beautiful image of The Divine Mercy will be on display in our sanctuary.

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us , all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. About the feast of Divine Mercy Sunday, Our Lord told St. Faustina:

> I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. [The Church allows for one to go to Confession for up to about 20 days, before or after Divine Mercy Sunday.] On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. Diary, 699)

Never Been Confirmed Growing Up?

Adult Catholics who have never been confirmed may receive the sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost, June 9th 2:30 pm, at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More in Arlington. Second Collection This Week

Next weekend, April 27th and 28th, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home mission territory because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. For more information see www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Education, Catechesis, and Evangelization

Religious Education News

Religious Education classes will not meet this week. Classes resume Monday and Tuesday, April 29th and 30th.

Recognizing Jesus in the Eucharist

Many people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. Is there someone you could invite to Mass and to explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them? For more information contact Scott Bradford, RCIA@stveronica.net, about classes held Monday evenings at 7:30 pm in the St. John Paul II room. Join us for our next class on Monday, April 29th when we discuss "Prayer and Spirituality." Join us to find out what it's all about.

TMIY Continues Next Saturday

All men of the parish are invited to join us the next Saturday, April 27th, when we conclude The Vision of Man Fully Alive, and discuss "The Road to Nazareth." TMIY meets in the parish hall every Saturday morning, with breakfast at 6:30, video presentation at 7:00, small group discussions at 7:45, finishing by 8:10.

Divine Mercy Novena Continues

In preparation for, and leading up to, Divine Mercy Sunday, April 28th, St. Veronica will be praying a novena to The Divine Mercy after all Masses. The request and prayers for this novena were given by Our Lord directly to St. Faustina: "I desire that during these nine days [beginning on Good Friday] you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, especially at the hour of death." Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary of St. Faustina, 1209-29. The novena prayers, which bring a different group of souls to the Heart of Jesus each of the nine days as instructed by Our Lord, are available in the church, or you may find them online, http://tinyurl.com/huv725h.

Why I Love Being Catholic

Dynamic Catholic asked 100,000 Catholics "Why do you love being Catholic? What is your favorite memory as a Catholic? As Catholic, what are your hopes for the future?" Pick up a copy of this book to find out what they said. Through the generosity of a parishioner, copies will be available in the vestibules of the church after all Masses this weekend, April 20th and 21st, while supplies last.

~ Fast & Pray for Persecuted Christians ~

Forgiveness - An Essential Quality for a Christian

During Easter and Mercy Sunday we remember Our Lord's great mercy and what He suffered to redeem us. Yet, if we are to be forgiven by God, we must be a people of mercy and forgive as God has forgiven us. Forgiveness is motivated by obedience to God and his command to forgive. Forgiveness is a prominent theme in the Bible and in Jesus' mission. Yet, it's not uncommon for Christians to have questions about forgiveness. The act of forgiving does not come easy for most of us. Our natural instinct is to recoil in self-protection when we've been injured. We don't naturally overflow with mercy, grace and understanding when we've been wronged. This means we must look for opportunities to forgive and always be ready to start over, even when someone has betrayed us 'seventy times seven times. We definitely need to understand what Jesus says about forgiving and how God will measure His forgiveness toward us. We learn from Scripture, if we don't forgive, neither will we be forgiven. Come join the Patricians on Monday, May 13th at 7:00 pm in the acolyte room as we discuss how we can better become a people of Mercy and Forgiveness.

On the Manner of Making a Good Confession

Q. What should we do after telling our sins?

A. After telling our sins we should listen with attention to the advice which the confessor may think proper to give.

Q. How should we end our Confession?

A. We should end our Confession by saying, "I also accuse myself of all the sins of my past life," telling, if we choose, one or several of our past sins.

Q. What should we do while the priest is giving us absolution?

A. While the priest is giving us absolution, we should from our heart renew the Act of Contrition.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Our Lord's triumph fill your hearts with joy this sacred Season of Easter and always!

The Resurrection of Jesus Christ brings an end to gloom and darkness—it is the source of our hope. In proclaiming the Good News of the Resurrection, the Apostles radiated Christ's love so that all might receive the new life obtained through His sacrifice. As disciples of Jesus, we too have been called out of the darkness of this world into His wonderful light.

Made one by Our Redeemer, we are sent forth as the light of the world. May we, especially at this time in the life of our nation and church, radiate the light of Christ in our communities by the example of faithful and holy lives and by the compassion we extend to those most in need.

I pray that Almighty God will abundantly bless you and your families during this sacred Season of Easter. Through the intercession of Mary our Mother, may you come to share in the life of Our Risen Lord now and forever.

Sincerely in Christ,

Michael F. Burbidge
