Solemnity of All Saints

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted
for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.
Matthew 5:7-12

From the Pastor

FROM GREEN TO GOLD — November 1, 2026

I must open this week's column with my sports commentary. First, last Sunday the Green Bay Packers played one of their divisional and chief rivals, the Lions in Detroit. There were some rather controversial calls by the officials, but, regardless, Green Bay lost, 17 to 20, when the Lions kicked a field goal in literally the final seconds of the game. The Packers didn't help themselves, missing two somewhat easily attempted field goals. This means the Packers with a record of 4 and 3 are now in last place in their division and broke a three-game winning streak. Then there are the Brewers. I've written extensively about them these past few weeks. During the playoffs they took down the Padres, then the mighty Dodgers, sweeping them and gaining Milwaukee a run for the World Series Championship. They faced the Tampa Bay Rays, the best team this season in the American League. Both teams play similar style baseball. They are low salaried, small market teams, who don't go for homeruns, but rather for singles and doubles, stealing bases, and playing really good defensive ball. Additionally, they are both known to have good pitching staffs. The Brewers probably have the best pitcher in MLB, Jacob Misiorowski, a young phenomenon only in his second year of pitching. Both teams have great managers and excellent pitching coaches. This was set to be a true contest of "equals." Games one and two basically were that. Both were played in Milwaukee, giving the Brewers the edge. They won the first game 2 to 3. The "Miz" was the opening pitcher, he was good, but not fantastic, pitching only five innings and allowing one run. The bullpen was superb. Game two didn't start well for the Brewers as the Rays scored four runs in the first inning, but that didn't stop the Brewers, because again with some good hitting and excellent relief pitching, they stunned the Rays and won 4 to 5. Then last Monday night, after a day off, in Florida, where the Rays should have had the upper hand and thought they would show the Brewers, with a star pitcher from the Brewers just a year ago but now with the Rays, Milwaukee scored first, two runs in the third inning. Two innings later and the Brewers had an unbelievable fifth inning. They hit no homeruns (typical of their style) but had seven straight hits and put eight runs on the scoreboard, making it a 10 to 0 game. Tampa was flabbergasted and seemingly completely deflated. During the nineth inning the Brewers brought back a previously injured stalwart, who hadn't pitched since July 4th, in an almost nostalgic gesture. He did allow one run and two hits but closed out the game. At that point, the Brewers were one win away from the World Championship, which they had never won. As always, this column is written in advance, so I don't know if the Brewers swept the Rays or whether they even won that additional game. My hope is that they took game four. What I do know is that once again they have shown that "old-school" ways work, that we can never give up, that we need to be persistent and hope filled. That is how they have played all season and my hope is that it brought them a world championship, just as spiritually doing so, will bring us heaven someday.

That's probably way too much about sports, but honestly, I'm excited. I am also excited about all of us becoming a saint, someday. To do that we need to be consistent, hopeful, really give our all to the task of growing in holiness, repenting of our sins, and availing ourselves to God's grace—at Mass, in the confessional, through daily prayer, and with good works. Today we celebrate all those who have accomplished that, especially the many who will never be canonized and officially recognized for their holiness. This would include our relatives and friends. Maybe some of you have some truly exceptional loved ones who just might be recognized by the Church for their heroic virtue, but most will never be, yet we too can be and really should be one of those souls in heaven someday. Any person there, officially declared to be or not, is a saint. This All Saints Day celebrates all those not declared to be heaven by the Church but are. Those in heaven make up what we call the Church Triumphant. They have triumphed over sin and death, and most likely a stay in purgatory, to now reside eternally in heaven with God. They can pray for us who are still here on earth struggling to get to heaven. We form the Church Militant, as we are still "fighting" for that eternal reward. There is also the Church Suffering, which is all those souls in purgatory, who have passed from this world but are awaiting the glory of heaven as they are "purged" of their sins and imperfections. I'll discuss this more next week.

My final thought, instead, this week is about the election this Tuesday. Early voting began in September. Since then, you have heard plenty, at least I hope you have, about the significance of this year's election because of those two really troublesome amendments. They deal with the sanctity of human life, especially the unborn, and the sacredness of marriage and the family. These proposals open a doorway to numerous morally sinful issues. It is absolutely necessary as Catholics and citizens of Virginia that we vote and that we vote "NO" to those first and second amendments. If you did not participate in early voting, please get to the polls on Tuesday and exercise your civil and moral duty. Please put your Faith into action and vote 'no' to the enshrining of abortion and same-sex marriage here in this Commonwealth. Please also pray that people will make common sense decisions and that Virginia will be spared these horrible evils. May God bless us always.

In Christ, Fr. Kleinmann

Schedule Changes for Veterans' Day

On Wednesday, November 11, there will be one 8:30 am Mass only, no confessions, 12:15pm or 7:30 pm Masses. The parish office will be closed. Thank you to all of our Veterans!

Inscribe the Book of Remembrance

Remember your deceased loved ones in prayer throughout the month of November by inscribing their names in the Book of Remembrance on display in the church.

All Souls Novena

November 2nd is All Souls Day, and the first day of our Novena of Masses for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed. All Souls Day Remembrance envelopes are available in the vestibules. Please place the envelope in the collection basket with the names of your loved ones clearly written out. The envelopes will be placed on the altar during the Novena to share in the spiritual benefit of these holy Masses. Any donation included will be gratefully accepted. If you use Parish Soft, please call the parish office—we will make sure that your names are placed on the altar.

Joyous Occasion celebrated with Altar Flowers

The beautiful flowers in the altar of repose this weekend, October 31st and November 1st, were donated by a recently married couple in honor of their wedding. Please keep our donors and their intention in your prayers.

Thanksgiving offered with Altar Flowers

The beautiful flowers in the statues of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph, this weekend, October 31st and November 1st, were donated in "thanksgiving for our faith" by a generous donor. Please keep our donor and their intention in your prayers.

Plenary Indulgence for Souls in Purgatory

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted under the usual conditions to the faithful who, on any day from November 1st to 8th, devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, if only mentally for the departed. "An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the saints. An indulgence is partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin" CCC 1471

Talk on Gaudium et Spes

The Office of Faith Formation invites you to attend a talk on Gaudium et Spes: Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World. Hear Fr. John Heisler discuss Gaudium et Spes on Thursday, November 5, at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More. Registration is free and RSVP's are helpful.
