 Fourteenth Sunday
 of Ordinary Time

Prayer for Rest in God :
*Gracious God, in the midst of our busy lives, You call us to rest in Your love. Help us care for the bodies You have given us through healthy balance, restorative sleep, and moments of renewal. Grant us emotional peace amid life's stresses, and bless us with family and friends who refresh our hearts and lift our spirits. Quiet the many voices that compete for our attention, and open our hearts to hear Your gentle voice. May we turn to You for strength, consolation, and true spiritual rest, trusting that in Your presence we will find the peace
 our souls desire. Amen.*

WHAT'S IN YOUR HEART?

Are you getting enough rest in your life? Ask yourself the following:

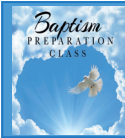

- ◆ Do I get sufficient physical rest? That includes finding the right balance of exercise and sleep, invigorating activity as well as restful, rejuvenating times.
- ◆ Do I enjoy enough emotional rest? Life is stressful and emotionally demanding. Do I plan enough down time, as well as time with family, friends, and colleagues who let me relax and be myself so I can recharge my emotional batteries?
- ◆ How about spiritual rest? Am I spiritually antsy, suffering from a kind of spiritual insomnia? Or am I able to "rest in God?" In my prayer life, do I turn to God for consolation and strength? Am I able to quiet down the 10,000 voices inside and hear the "still small voice" of God?

WHERE WE LIVE, SERVE, & WALK TOGETHER IN FAITH.

MEMORIALS—WEEK OF JULY 6

Blessed Virgin Mary Votive Candle
In Loving Memory of Marion Smith
Requested by Donna & Greg Picone

St. Joseph Votive Candle
Honoring
"One Nation Under God"

Tabernacle Lamp
In Celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the United States of America

FROM FR. BRIDGES

My Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we celebrate the 250th Anniversary of the birth of our nation, as we commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. Despite being a very small minority in the country 250 years ago, Catholics have continued to play an important role in the history of the United States. Only one Catholic signed the declaration of independence, Charles Carroll of Maryland, however, in the following years, Catholics would go on to become an important part of the fabric of the USA. Saints such as Elizabeth Ann Seton, Katherine Drexel, and Frances Xavier Cabrini, as well as Blesseds like Stanley Rother, Michael McGivney, and Fulton Sheen all have helped shape the Church in America. Countless Catholic patriots dedicated their lives to helping our nation live up to our founding principles: that all men are created equal and endowed by our creator with the rights of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

True liberty is not simply the ability to do whatever we want. It is the freedom and responsibility to do what is right, just, and good. Liberty must always be at the service of charity. Our nation has gone through many highs and lows over the past 250 years, but it always remains our home, our common inheritance. Through it all, we are exhorted to live out the virtue of patriotism, and we must ever pray for this land we call our home.

Let us commemorate our 250th birthday as a nation first and foremost with prayer and gratitude. Gratitude to our founding fathers who established this nation on such noble principals, gratitude to the servicemen and women who have fought to defend those principals, but above all, with gratitude to Almighty God, whose providence guides us.

Happy Independence Day!

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Alan J. Bridges

In accordance with the Propagation of the Faith, join us in warmly welcoming Fr. Jaroslav Jaško, C.M., a Vincentian missionary priest who will be visiting our Church on July 18 & 19. He has faithfully served the Church for more than thirty years in Slovakia, Honduras, Ukraine, and now Madagascar. Inspired by the charism of St. Vincent de Paul, Fr. Jaško has dedicated his life to evangelization, priestly formation, missionary outreach, and service to the poor. He is currently leading efforts to build a new Vincentian seminary in Madagascar to help form future priests and missionaries for the Church. Fr. Jaško will share the inspiring story of this mission and the tremendous impact it is having on the lives of young men discerning a vocation.

 OPPORTUNITIES

The lighting of a memorial candle serves as a way to honor and pay tribute to a loved one, whether living or deceased. It symbolizes love, remembrance, hope, and the enduring bond we share with those who are important to us. For those who have died, it reflects the continuation of their life in spirit and serves as a reminder that their memory lives on. Candles may also be lit in celebration, in thanksgiving, in remembrance, or for a special intention for someone living or deceased.

The candles at St. Joseph's, listed below, are lit for each intention for one week (Monday-Sunday)

Blessed Virgin Mary or St. Joseph Votive Candles:
 $25 week;

Tabernacle Lamp: $50 week

Call the Parish Office to reserve your candle today.

ONE NATION UNDER GOD

*"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord,
 The people whom He has chosen as His heritage"*

— Psalm 33:12

*Heavenly Father, As we celebrate the 250th anniversary of the United States of America, we give thanks for the blessings
 You have bestowed upon our nation and for the generations who have preserved the gift of freedom.*

Lord Jesus, guide our country in the ways of truth, justice, and peace. Heal divisions among us, strengthen our families and communities, and help us to recognize the dignity of every person.

*Send Your Holy Spirit upon our leaders and all citizens, that we may seek wisdom, live with charity, and place our trust in You.
 May America continue to be a land where faith, hope, and liberty flourish for generations to come.*

*Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Patroness of the United States, bless our nation and all who call it home. We ask this through

MENSAJE DEL PADRE ALAN

Querida Familia Parroquial,

Este fin de semana celebramos el 250° aniversario del nacimiento de nuestra nación, al conmemorar la firma de la Declaración de Independencia el 4 de Julio de 1776. A pesar de ser una minoría muy pequeña en el país hace 250 años, los católicos han seguido desempeñando un papel importante en la historia de los Estados Unidos. Solo un católico firmó la Declaración de Independencia — Charles Carroll, de Maryland—; sin embargo, en los años siguientes, los católicos llegarían a ser una parte fundamental del tejido social de los EE. UU. Santas como Elizabeth Ann Seton, Katharine Drexel y Frances Xavier Cabrini, así también beatos como Stanley Rother, Michael McGivney y Fulton Sheen, han contribuido a dar forma a la Iglesia en Estados Unidos. Innumerables patriotas católicos dedicaron sus vidas a ayudar a nuestra nación a estar a la altura de nuestros principios fundacionales: que todos los hombres son creados iguales y dotados por nuestro Creador con los derechos a la «vida, la libertad y la búsqueda de la felicidad».

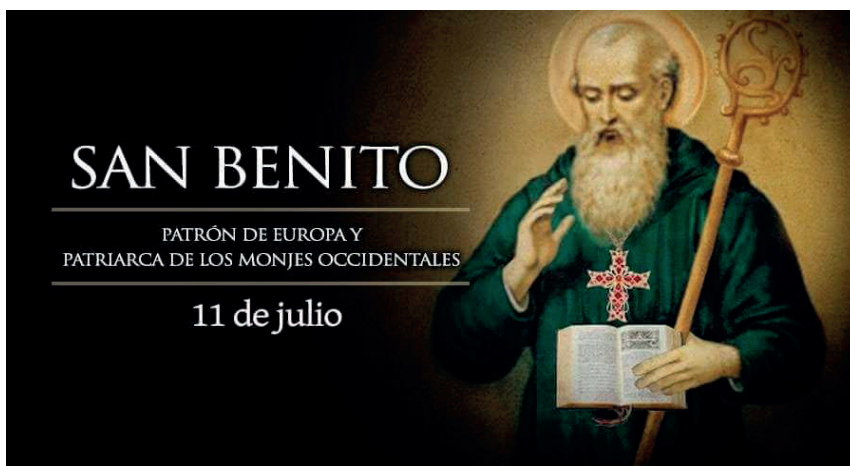

La verdadera libertad no es simplemente la capacidad de hacer lo que queramos. Es la libertad y la responsabilidad de hacer lo correcto, lo justo y lo bueno. La libertad debe estar siempre al servicio de la caridad. Nuestra nación ha pasado por muchos altibajos en los últimos 250 años, pero siempre sigue siendo nuestro hogar, nuestra herencia común. En medio de todo ello, se nos exhorta a vivir la virtud del patriotismo, y debemos orar siempre por esta tierra que llamamos nuestro hogar.

Conmemoremos nuestro 250 aniversario como nación, ante todo, con oración y gratitud. Gratitud hacia nuestros padres fundadores, que establecieron esta nación sobre principios tan nobles; gratitud a los hombres y mujeres que han luchado por defender esos principios; pero, sobre todo, gratitud a Dios Todopoderoso, cuya providencia nos guía. ¡Feliz Día de la Independencia!

Su servidor en Cristo,

Padre Alan J. Bridges
