Our parish is a place of welcome and assistance for moms in need and we strive to be instruments of God's love and compassion. WWMIN provides those in need with resources for unexpected pregnancy counseling, food, baby items, post-abortive healing, and more. If you would like to be involved or have questions/suggestions, please contact Joanne Burke (914) 417-5711 or Janet Tinari (914) 527-9541. Everyone should know how to help moms in difficult circumstances. Please pick up a brochure of the WWMIN Pregnancy Resources List located on the wall in the lobby of the Main Church.

A Note from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As I mentioned last Sunday at the Masses I celebrated, last Saturday was definitely a first for me.

I had agreed to say some prayers at a Prayer Vigil at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Mohegan Lake. It was organized by family and friends of two girls from Lakeland High School who went missing a week earlier. The families of Evelyn Jimenez, 17, and Violet Munroe, 15, are heartbroken. The standing-room-only crowd prayed for their safe return. I am hoping that the girls will be located before you read these words.

The unusual thing for me was that I was the only member of the clergy present for the Vigil at the Episcopalian Church of St. Mary. The priest of the parish was not available. It is a quaint little church which I have passed many times but had never visited. I have been on the property because, as pastor of Elizabeth Ann Seton, I am on the Board of the Food Pantry located at St. Mary's.

Except for the fact that there is no tabernacle there to reserve the Blessed Sacrament (because Episcopalians do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in Holy Communion), it could be a Catholic Church. One of my silent prayers that day was, like Jesus, to beseech Almighty God that one day we Christians can all be one family in Christ. Sadly, we are not there yet, after 2000 years, but an event such as the Prayer Vigil, in which people of different denominations, and perhaps even different faiths, come together to pray for a common cause, is a hopeful moment.

I was grateful to have been asked and to play a small part in the effort to bring the girls home safely. I am certain we can all imagine the angst of the families at this time. I read the gospel passage of when Jesus was separated from his parents in Jerusalem for several days and how anxious and scared Mary and Joseph must have been. The same Mary after whom that Episcopalian Church is named. The mother of Jesus. You see we do have much in common with all Christians, and indeed, every person of good will.

May the Lord bless us all and bring Evelyn and Violet home soon.

Sincerely in Christ,
