OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL

October 12, 2025

Month of the Holy Rosary Jubilee Year of Hope

Dear friends in the Lord:

Next Sunday, October 19 we celebrate as a church World Mission Sunday, a day when Catholics around the world unite in prayer and solidarity to support the missionary work of the Church. As I write to you today, I express my deep gratitude for last year's most generous contribution of $392,302.

This year's theme, "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," is exceptionally moving because, even though it was chosen by Pope Francis, it reflects both the heart of our faith and the vision of our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, who spent most of his priestly service as a missionary in the remote regions of Peru. It reminds us that The Pontifical Mission Societies are "the primary means for awakening missionary responsibility among all the baptized supporting mission areas where the Church is young." His personal witness deepens the meaning of this year's celebration, inviting us to renew our commitment to the Church's mission in the world.

It is fitting, as we reflect on our role in supporting the missions, to remember that the Catholic Church in the United States was once a mission territory itself. Just over a century ago, the faith here was still taking root, supported by the generosity of Catholics from Europe and beyond who provided financial assistance, sent priests and religious, and built the parishes and schools that formed the foundation of the Church in this country. American Catholics benefited from the same collection we are invited to support today, overseen by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Now, it is our turn to extend that same generosity to others. We are called to support the missionaries, priests, religious sisters and brothers, and lay leaders who serve in the 1,124 mission territories where the Church is still young.

The second collection next Sunday supports the work of The Pontifical Mission Societies, the Pope's official means of assisting Catholic communities in the world's poorest and most remote regions. Your prayers and sacrifices ensure that the light of Christ reaches the ends of the earth.

In this spirit, may this World Mission Sunday deepen our commitment and may I offer you my personal gratitude and prayerful best wishes for your kind missionary hearts.

Faithfully in Christ,

†Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

A Note from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I am writing these notes before going to a meeting of Pastors of the Archdiocese with Cardinal Dolan and others. About 100 pastors gather in Spring Lake, NJ each year in October. Because some parishes are merged, the 100 pastors represent a little more than half of the parishes in the Archdiocese. It is a good opportunity for the pastors to have discussions and to be able to converse with the Cardinal. There are also presentations for us to hear from others regarding life in the parishes and the central offices of the Archdiocese. It means pastors have to be away for a few days but fortunately Fr. Zachary and Fr. Tony are here to cover all the necessities in the parish. Some pastors have no associate priests and it must be very difficult for them and their parishioners when no priest is present.

On another note, the Confirmation Masses for all of the high school Freshmen were truly beautiful. My good friend, Auxiliary Bishop Whalen, does a great job at speaking to the young people and adults at those Masses. Confirmation is such a significant faith event and our prayer is, of course, that faith will continue to be an important part of life for them in high school and beyond. We are blessed to have a wonderful Catholic School in our parish and a wonderful Religious Education Program as well. The Bishop could tell that those confirmed last weekend were well-prepared and serious about living their faith. May the same be the case for all of the young people in our parish and all of the adults too.

Please know that our clergy and out staff are here to help in any way we can. If anyone needs to catch up on Religious Education or receive sacraments that they may have been putting off for a while, please contact us (more than once if necessary). That is what parishes are for.

God bless everyone.

Sincerely in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Monsignor Giandurco". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
