A Note from the Pastor

“The darkness is over and the real light begins to shine.” (1John 2:8b)
This bible passage caught my eye the other day because this describes very well how Easter should make us Christians feel.

In the Northern Hemisphere, Easter always arrives in the Spring. There is no question that it is generally a time of increased light and new life, at least for flora everywhere. There is almost always something refreshing about springtime. Of course, for us Christians, new life takes on new meaning in Jesus.

Also, in terms of darkness and light, Jesus is the real light. The darkness referred to in the passage is not just the darkness of night nor is it the greater presence of darkness in the winter months, even though winter is over for us. The darkness referenced is the darkness of sin and death. Sin and death can bring real darkness to our lives. Jesus has brought new life and light by his Resurrection. No one else would ever be able to conquer sin and death as Jesus did. As human beings, we must still deal with sin and death, but we place our hope and trust in our Lord and Savior to lead us to the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Church that Jesus established, our Catholic Church, helps us to follow Jesus in every way. Here at St. Patrick's, we thank God for our parish family. We have a true spiritual home here.

I thank Fr. Zachary and Fr. Tony, our deacons, our staff and all of our volunteers for their continued dedication to the faith and to one another. I truly marvel at the good works that go on here every day of the year.

I especially want to thank our parishioners who so generously support our parish. Not only the Easter collection (which is extremely important) but all of the donations made throughout the year to allow the parish to do so much to nourish faith and charity.

May the Risen Lord bless us and all of our loved ones. Jesus is truly with us always. He is the Light of the World. Blessed Easter!

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor Giarduno
