A Note from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

In last week's Pastor's Notes, I mentioned about back to school and back to work for those who have had a break from the usual routine. Things are about to get very busy around the parish also. I have had a break and, since Fr. Matthew Kumi is here for all of September, Fr. Tony can take a break now. For almost everyone else, September is time to start again. I simply want to mention a few things.

Saint Patrick's School will be back in session this coming Thursday. From Pre-K to Eighth grade, all of the students will begin the school year with a prayer for God's blessings. Most public schools have begun already, but Religious Education classes for First through Eighth grade begin on September 14-16. If anyone is able to assist in teaching or monitoring halls, please let the Religious Education Office know as soon as possible. We need your help.

Other groups are also starting up again this month, from Bible Study to Feminine Genius, and the regular meetings are a big part of the life of the parish. Keep an eye out for information on the various groups in the bulletin. The preparation sessions for those preparing to become Catholic or to receive the sacraments start later in September.

Also in this month of September, Yorktown sponsors the annual San Gennaro Festival. Our parish, under the watchful eye of John Stedman and others, will make thousands of delicious Zeppoles during the Festival. It is a fantastic fundraiser, but also a time of hard work and a wonderful time of community building. Our dedicated volunteers put in many hours to serve the Lord and serve the parish by making Zeppoles. If anyone can offer some help at the Zeppole Booth please let us know before the Festival begins.

May God bless our efforts and keep our parish in His care.

Sincerely in Christ,
