If you or a loved one are homebound or seriously ill at home and would like to receive Communion, please call the Rectory at (914) 962-5050. We have a very active Eucharistic Ministry group who are ready and willing to assist. You can also ask for the Sacrament of the Sick.

The Cardinal's Annual Appeal continues throughout the Archdiocese.

This year, our parish was asked to raise $183,000 of the $21M goal for the Appeal. The parish receives 60% back of funds raised over the goal. We already have $213,418 in pledges!

Thank you if you have already made a donation.
Please consider one if you haven't.

Eternal Rest Grant to our Deceased Loved Ones,
O Lord, and Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon Them.
May their Souls and the Souls of
All the Faithful Departed Rest in Peace.

The Knights of Columbus Food Pantry Collections are ongoing in the Vestibule of the Main Church, providing much-needed grocery items to Food Pantries in our area. In addition to canned fruit, cereal, and other non-perishable foods - if possible - extra accumulated large reusable grocery bags may be donated as well for the distribution of food to families. There is a great need in our area.

Bringing Up the Offertory Gifts during Mass. People who bring up the offertory gifts at Catholic Mass are known as gift bearers. They represent the congregation, carrying forward the bread and wine at the Offertory part of Mass. This symbolic gesture honors God by offering the fruits of creation and the work of human hands. Gift bearers can be anyone in the congregation, but many times people bring up the gifts to commemorate a loved one mentioned in the Mass intention on Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses. If you wish to be a gift bearer (two individuals) at Weekend Mass, please see one of the Ushers several minutes before the Mass begins - What a wonderful way to express thanks and joy to Our Lord God by bearing these gifts! (Someone else may have asked.)

****

Final Week to Return Your Box of Joy! All completed Boxes of Joy must be returned to the Parish Center by THIS Sunday, November 8 to ensure your gifts reach children in need in time for Christmas. Thank you for your generosity and for helping us share the true joy of the season with those who need it most. Questions: contact Brian or Joanne Burke 914-417-5712 or 914-417-5711 or check out www.boxofjoy.org.

Gratitude, Community and Turkeys! These are three pillars that make Thanksgiving special, and they come together as many Food Pantries in our area distribute turkeys as well as food distributions for many people who have financial difficulties providing food for their families. First Presbyterian Food Pantry, 2880 Crompond Road Yorktown Heights, NY, 10598, is a local community-based program site that distributes free groceries directly to individuals and families facing financial hardship or food insecurity. At Thanksgiving, the Food Pantry distributes food items for as many as 350 families in need (although it could be higher this year); coming to its doors to provide meal staples for families several days before Thanksgiving. As costs are rising for many food pantries across the region, they are in particular need of donated frozen turkeys to reduce their costs! The Pantry would be very grateful for your donation of a turkey (if you can!); and the best time to do so would be between 3-5pm on Friday 11/20- otherwise contact Katharine Frase, Director (914) 245-2186.)

St. Patrick's Parish "Separated & Divorced" Support Group will meet Saturday, November 21st from 9:30am-11:30am in the Parish Center Meeting Room. To register please call or email the Facilitator, Joyce Schelle at (914) 450-8606, jschelle23@aol.com or call the Rectory at (914) 962-5050.

A Note from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This past week we had a mini-pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini in Manhattan, followed by lunch at Little Italy in the Bronx. We could only send one bus due to space limitations at the venues but it would have been nice to be able to have more parishioners together. For those who went, there was the opportunity to pray at the Saint's resting place under the altar and to participate in Mass with me. After that, a short trip to Arthur Avenue in the Bronx for an Italian meal and time to see the Church of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and perhaps some shopping time on the Avenue.

Since the Memorial of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini is this coming week on the 13th, I think it is a good time to focus a bit on her life. She was born Maria Francesca Cabrini on July 15, 1850 in Northern Italy. Mother Cabrini, as she came to be known, founded the religious order of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Before she passed away in Chicago on December 22, 1917, she established 67 schools, orphanages and hospitals throughout the United States, Latin America, the Caribbean region and Europe. Mother Cabrini originally wanted her missionary sisters to serve in China. Pope Leo XIII told her not to go to China but New York. The Italian immigrants there needed her spiritual and temporal assistance. Like many new groups of immigrants, Italians suffered due to discrimination and distrust. Even though Mother Cabrini encountered many other obstacles from Church and Civil authorities, she kept pushing forward and had many successes in serving those in need including orphans and the destitute in many locations. Mother Cabrini made 24 transatlantic crossings in her lifetime, and a great deal of travel within the United States. She became a U.S. citizen in 1909. She passed away in Chicago in 1917. She was canonized on July 7, 1946. (She was beatified on November 13, 1938. November 13 is her feast day.) In 1950 she was named patron Saint of Immigrants. There are quite a few shrines in her honor but the Shrine in NYC is in Northern Manhattan. Her body was first moved from Chicago to Cabrini High School, Manhattan in 1938. In 1960 her remains were moved to a separate chapel, still in a glass coffin, where it remains to this day. She is the first U.S. citizen to be canonized.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, pray for us.

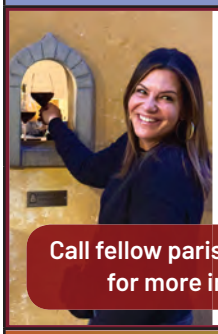

Sincerely in Christ,
